

The Hard Road Back

The down-hill coast was dizzy, and thrilling in spots, but now we face the rocky, uphill climb, back to where we belong. We can blame things and people for how we got this way but we're still face to face with a real situation which must be met head-on if we wish to remain a free people.

Our founding fathers conceived a pattern of Government, limited in powers, to render a few services such as waging defensive warfare, delivering the mail, taking the census—leaving to state and local government most of those functions that protect the personal liberties of the citizens. When our Country was young, our citizens not only resented unjust and unnecessary taxation—they did something about it! How times have changed.

Today's Federal Government is seen as an ungainly, bloated, poorly co-ordinated colossus—a poorly conditioned and obese Uncle Sam who employs over 2,000,000 people and spends over $40,000,000,000 a year and owns one fifth of the area of the United States.

Recognizing the seriousness of our national symptoms, Congress created the Hoover Commission to study the patient and prescribe treatment. After assembling a most impressive group of experts and technicians the Commission probed deep into every area and studied every function of our Super-Government and found—confusion, duplication of effort—broken and tangled lines of authority, and appalling waste.

However, in answering the question "where do we go from here?" we discover even a more serious disease than the "advanced galloping bureaucracy," so well diagnosed by the Hoover Report. We are forced to realize that the spirit of '76 has been weakened by a disintegration of civic tissue which has caused us to look upon the Federal Government not as a servant but as a sort of Santa Claus from whom blessings flow for all.

The road back is hard. In order to lead the free peoples of the world—for destiny has offered us the torch of leadership—we must first purge ourselves of the false philosophy that Washington is a never failing source of benefits for all and that new laws and new appropriations will cure all ills. Then, before we can show others the way we must put our own house in order.

All this involves a right about face—an all out attack on the apathetic and indifferent attitude toward individual civic responsibility.

This primary effort is necessary to make progress towards winning back some measure of the liberties of real self-government that should characterize our democracy.

Have we still got enough of what it takes? The first step back is to realize the single basic fact that every right—every privilege carries an attendant duty or obligation.

Your government is an extension of you. Your representatives in Congress will deliver the packages that you demand. At this critical moment those who you selected to act for you are considering measures involving your dollars, your liberties, and your future.

Well organized, selfish pressure groups are already in action to prevent the passage of legislation necessary to carry out the recommendations of the Hoover Report. Are you interested enough to expend the time and effort to write a letter to your congressman and urge that he vote for the Hoover proposals?

Swim Sanely - And Play Safe!

This is that holiday-spangled season of the year when numbers of otherwise normal persons, from six to 60, are touched with a sort of summer madness and set out unconsciously to demonstrate how careless they can be with their lives and those of their loved ones.

Some will exercise their summertime recklessness at the wheel of a rocketing car, playing tag with eternity with all the aplomb of a youngster peddling his scooter around the block.

Others will make their bid for final listing in the vital statistics at the beach or lake, where, suddenly blind to their own aquatic limitations, they will chance disaster in strange and deep waters with the casualness of a man walking across his own lawn.

Most of the season's daredevils will get by with their summertime driving and swimming deeds of derring-do. Some won't. Failure of the latter will, as had happened in summers past, plunge families into sorrow, make holiday headlines, and help swell the nation's vacation days death toll.

Long a voice of caution amid the intoxicating sound and fury of summertime, the Y.M.C.A., which pioneered swimming instruction in this country as far back as 1885, again launches its annual campaign for water safety.

Capsuled in a few words it cautions: "Swim Sanely—and Play Safe."

According to the "Y," almost 100,000,000 Americans cannot swim. If you are one of them, only bathe where a lifeguard can spot you if you get into trouble.

Let's make this a safe and sane summer and—"Swim Sanely—and Play Safe."

Thown From Car In Crash at Centre

Hurled from the automobile in which she had been riding as a passenger after it was involved in a collision with another car Tuesday, Mrs. Mabel O. Sawyer, 72, of 142 Elgin street, Newton Centre, struck a stone wall suffering severe head injuries.

At the Newton-Wellesley Hospital where she was taken by Newton police following the accident at Glen avenue, and Elgin street, Mrs. Sawyer's name was placed on the danger list. Officials said she was suffering from

To Ask Ruling On Railroad Billboards

The question of the authority of the Newton city government to prevent the display of billboards at railroad stations will be referred to the Law Department for an opinion.

After receiving letters of protest from citizens against the reported plan of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company to sell advertising space for billboards at its railroad stations, Public Buildings Commissioner Arthur Campbell stated Wednesday that he would ask the City Solicitor for a ruling on the matter.

The fact that the city ordinance controlling billboards specifically excludes railroad property from its provisions, has cast serious doubt on the power of the city government to prevent the advertising project.

Stoning of Trains Assuming Dangerous Proportions

Stoning of passenger trains and trespassing on railroad property have assumed such proportions recently that the police departments of the New Haven, the Boston & Maine and the Boston & Albany are appealing to parents to help them end these nuisances. The railroad police are also working with city and town police departments now that the children are on summer vacation, the time when the railroads usually have the most trouble of this type.

In recent months there have been some serious accidents as a result of stones crashing through passenger car windows, resulting in injuries from shattered glass. Fortunately none of these accidents has resulted in a fatality, but they have caused the railroads considerable concern.

The only method the railroad police have of combating these pranks is to hail the children into juvenile court, which means that the parents will also be forced to appear. The railroad police are always reluctant to take any such steps and feel that the entire problem could be solved if the children were warned at home of the danger of trespassing on railroad property, and also to the incalculable injuries they may inflict through throwing stones at passenger cars.

Announces Summer Schedule Of 'Learn to Swim' Program

Frank Dowcett, Chairman, Water Safety Program, Newton Chapter, American Red Cross, announces the opening of the summer schedule for the "Learn to Swim" program, sponsored by the Newton Red Cross for all the children of Newton.

Five trained Red Cross instructors will be at Crystal Lake to handle the classes which are held five days a week throughout the entire summer. Children from age five and up are eligible. Parents who wish to bring their own children to Crystal Lake may do so and the children will be assigned to classes.

Monday—9:00 a.m. Buses will be at the Stearns, Lincoln-Elliott and Hawthorne school playgrounds. 10:00 a.m. Buses will be at Claffin and the Cabot school playgrounds. 2:00 p.m. Buses will be at the F. A. Day Playground, Crafts Street entrance.

Tuesday—9:00 a.m. Buses will be at the Horace Mann and the Carr School playgrounds. 10:00

Barbara Road Bids Are Announced

Two low bidders for the contract to construct the sanitary sewer on Barbara road, have been announced by the Street Commissioners of the City of Newton. Bagarella Construction Co., Inc. of Watertown, entered the lowest bid of $2,350.85. N. Scioletti of Hyde Park, entered the second lowest bid of $2,807.45.

School Is Out - So Are Our Children

"Last year, in the months of July, August and September, 258 children were killed and 2268 additional child casualties were reported struck down and injured in highway accidents in Massachusetts, many of these injuries resulting in permanent disability to the victims," stated Rudolph F. King, Registrar of Motor Vehicles, as he issued warnings today concerning child safety during the 1949 vacation period.

"From now until schools reopen in the fall, the dangers from highway hazard are potentially increased because many youngsters forget the safety training received during the school term and as a result become involved in mishaps which prove serious, if not fatal.

"Every motorist and parent is urged to apply extra effort to the prevention of accidents involving children. Not only is a duty imposed upon every motor vehicle operator but the obligation of protection must be shared equally by all, including pedestrians, who should never contribute to a child's unsafe act by setting bad examples of behavior."

Holiday Traffic Control by Police Praised by Mayor

In a communication to Chief Philip Purcell of the Police Department Wednesday Mayor Theodore Lockwood praised the entire police force for their excellent work on traffic control over the holiday week-end. He stated:

"May I, through you, thank every member of the Police Department for the exceptional and excellent traffic record of the weekend of July 4 when only two property damage accidents occurred and no harm to life or limb in Newton.

"Much credit should be given to all who have done their part in seeking the cooperation of the citizens and the public for their cooperation.

"However, the outstanding reason for this excellent record lies in your having a plan, having confidence in the plan and then having all hands see that the plan operates. It did."

Newton Establishes Fine Traffic Record

"The Fourth of July is over," Chief Philip Purcell of the Newton Police Department stated this week. "The volume of motor traffic on our highways reached a new high. The tragic reports of death and injuries have been compiled and, unfortunately, have exceeded the expectations of National Safety authorities.

"Newton," the Chief said, "went through the weekend with only a few minor property damage accidents reported. Our motorists responded to the safety slogan, 'Take Time—Save a Life.' They are to be congratulated."

"Let's keep up the good work," the Chief concluded.

Relocation of Route 128 to Bypass Newton

Relocation of Route 128, an objective campaigned for by an 11-community committee during the past three years, has been given top priority in the state's $100,000,000 highway program, according to an announcement by Gov. Dever. Work will start this fall. The decision means that the Commonwealth will press immediately to create a new highway extending from the present Route 128 junction with Route 9 at Wellesley to Lynnfield, a distance of 19 miles. Cost of the project is placed at $20,000,000. Final engineering plans now in process are expected to be completed by early autumn.

By finishing the modernization of Route 128 the state will bring into being a northern circumferential highway linking the North and South Shores. This important phase of the Master Highway Plan presented by the Department of Public Works during the administration of Gov. Bradford.

The new roadway will bypass centers of population in Newton, Waltham, Lexington, Woburn, Stoneham, Reading and Wakefield, thereby eliminating the perilous, winding thoroughfare which had evoked criticism from motorists and officials for years. It will extend from the Wellesley line through Newton Lower Falls to Weston, skirt the westerly border of Waltham in the vicinity of the Hobbs Brook Basin, and continue through Lexington, Burlington, Woburn, Wakefield and Reading before hooking up with the modernized Route 128 at the northerly end.

Marine Reserves to Head South July 16

Newton members of the Second Infantry Battalion, U. S. Marine Corps Reserve will take their two weeks of annual field training, beginning July 16, at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, where new ways of fighting "ship-to-shore" warfare will be revealed to them for the first time.

Special, hand-picked instructors from the Regular Marine Corps will teach the latest fighting methods. They will also show the local Leathernecks how to operate new amphibious equipment, especially developed for the Marine Corps to haul men and supplies over reefs to "capture" hostile enemy shores.

As part of their intensive training, the local Marines will spend three days on the rifle range. They will shoot the latest automatic weapons to qualify for marksmanship medals. The entire battalion will stage an actual combat landing on a North Carolina shore, supported by attack ships, planes, rockets and tanks.

Enough Water Stored For Six Years Use

"There is enough water in storage throughout Massachusetts as a whole to meet any droughts of considerably long duration," announced Arthur D. Weston, head of the division of sanitary engineering for the state department of public health. Recorded rainfall in the state showed an average of about one-half inch within the past three weeks.

As an example, Mr. Weston pointed out that without additional rainfall, the Boston Metropolitan Water District has water in storage sufficient to satisfy the present rate of water consumption for about six years.

"Some of the smaller water supplies may become threatened if the drought continues," said Mr. Weston. "Then, it would be necessary for the town or city to arrange to take water from a nearby water works."

"Part of the excessive drought on the systems is because people are using the water for sprinkling lawns and gardens," he explained, "making the water pressure inadequate in the piping systems for public supply."

Alderman Beale Home After Month's Tour of England

Alderman John C. Beale, Ward 7, of 125 Franklin street, returned home Monday from a month's tour of England and Scotland. He was accompanied on the tour by Mrs. Beale.

In Luton, Bedfordshire, they were received by Mayor C. A. Sinfield at the town hall and toured the city in the Mayor's car with the Mayor acting as guide. They were shown the large Vauxhall Motor plant and the new factory being built by U. S. capital. At the Portland Naval Base they were guests of Admiral Edward Anstie aboard the Battleship Anson at the annual Fleet Regatta.

Alderman Beale also spent time in Dorset fishing for salmon and landed a 25 pound catch.

He discussed traffic and parking problems with officials in several cities and towns and will have a statement later on the conditions he found. The English with far fewer cars and smaller ones than we have here, have a real parking problem and are tackling it and solving it in many cases.

Mr. and Mrs. Beale enjoyed thoroughly their passage to and from England by airplane.

Mr. Beale will be a candidate for re-election as alderman-at-large for a second term.

Motorists Asked to Be Alert Saturday For Military Cars

Motorists are asked by Major General William H. Harrison, Jr., Adjutant General of Massachusetts to be particularly alert for military motor vehicles of the Massachusetts National Guard which will be traveling Saturday, July 9 on Massachusetts Routes 3, 6, 28, 128, 106, 138, 44, and 140.

One series of 160 trucks and quarter-ton jeeps divided into 8 sections with approximately 20 vehicles in each section will move from Boston to Camp Edwards over Route 3 and 6 between 7:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. Saturday morning, July 9. One series of 229 trucks and quarter-ton jeeps of 11 sections will move from Boston and vicinity to Camp Edwards over Routes 128, 138, 106 and 28 between 7:30 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. Saturday morning July 9th. One series of 132 trucks and quarter-ton jeeps divided into 7 sections will move from Worcester and vicinity to Camp Edwards over Routes 140, 44, and 28 between 8:45 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. Saturday morning July 9th.

Details of the movements have been worked out by military authorities so as to interfere as little as possible with traffic to and from Cape Cod Saturday. As in former years State and local police of the cities and towns through which the convoys pass have kindly consented to assist passage of the convoys through road junctions where heavy traffic is met and through cities and towns.

Camp Quota Filled For Second Period

Leo A. Guilmond, chairman of the camp committee, announced today that Camp Massasoit, the Newton Y.M.C.A.'s day camp located at 276 Church Street, Newton, is already completely filled for the second three-week period, from July 18 to August 6.

Chamber Passes Resolve Objecting to Re-Zoning Of Business Areas in Newton

Condition of Streets Draws Criticism of John A. Janse

Pin-ticketing the "horse and buggy" administration at City Hall to the modern needs of motor travel within the Newton city limits John A. Janse, candidate for mayor, addressed his all-Newton "49ers" at their weekly meeting last night. Mr. Janse definitely tied in the "gay 90's" idea of street acceptance with the present day needs of the "49ers."

In a jocular way he referred to his own business as a contractor with the city when he said, "Every street in Newton knows the need of an automobile or a truck. Naturally the first is their acceptance of a pleasure car but just as important is the arrival of the groceries in a half-ton truck or the collection of the garbage in far heavier ones."

Directing the various other business matters at the meeting was W. Edward Wilson, chairman of Mr. Janse's campaign committee. Briefly outlined was the plan of organization of the "Janse 49ers" who will be pioneering in his behalf during the campaign. As Mr. Wilson well said, "Twas only 100 years ago that the 49ers proved their worth to the United States." Continuing he stated, "The new citizens of the great West in those days have shown their courage to the world. Today right here in Newton our '49ers' can prove their worth in the acceptance of a courageous citizen, Mr. Janse, for mayor."

Introducing Mr. Janse to many newcomers the chairman parried with a phrase that caught the assemblage, "Now is the time in '49."

Mr. Janse spoke in generalities regarding the street conditions in Newton preferring to

Workman Faints, Falls to Death At Aqueduct

Robert J. Cummings, 61, of Concord terrace, Framingham, a compressor operator, was fatally injured in Newton Wednesday when he fainted and fell against a rock while working on the Metropolitan District Commission aqueduct.

Medical Examiner T. Morton Gallagher said Cummings sustained a skull fracture and termed his death "accidental."

Fellow workmen said Cummings fell off a box on which he had been seated.

Police rushed him to the Newton-Wellesley Hospital, but he was dead on arrival.

Has the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Made Your Will?

If you have not made a will, the laws of your state say you will get your property and in what shares. Your wife, for example, may get a smaller share of your property than your children. Your property may go to people you don't want to have it.

You can make sure that the right people receive your property by making a will. Have it drawn by your lawyer so that it meets all legal requirements.

For your family's protection—make a will.

New Newtonville Store Opens With Full Line of Toys

A new store designed to fill a long-needed want for Newton residents opened last Friday at 295 Walnut street, Newtonville and The Toy Shop, as the name implies, will carry a full-line of merchandise to please both young and old.

Benjamin G. Klein and Max H. Snyder, partners of the new venture, state that they will carry toys, bicycles, Gibson greeting cards, children's records, Sawyer View-Master, aluminum Folda-Rola stroller, dolls and in fact all types of toys for the children. They also have stated that they will carry a full-line of merchandise to please both young and old.

The Toy Shop is located in the heart of the Newtonville shopping area, right next door to The Star Market.

Messrs. Klein and Snyder invite all Newton residents to pay them a visit and inspect this fine up-to-the-minute merchandise and assure all that a cordial welcome awaits all visitors.

Nine-tenths of the patients at Boston Children's Hospital come from Massachusetts; the rest from all over the world.

Increase of 722 In Claims Are Filed

"An increase of 722 claims for unemployment benefits was recorded by the Division of Employment Security last week," Antonio England, director, announced.

"In spite of the slight increase of 722 claims recorded last week it was encouraging to note a substantial drop in the total number of claims in the Lawrence area. The decrease for that area amounted to 1,049 claims from the previous week," England stated.

Last week's claims for the state amounted to 198,339, of which 171,486 were filed under the state law providing for unemployment compensation benefits and 26,853 claims were filed under the G. I. Bill by unemployed veterans.

"Very slight differences were noted in the number of initial claims over the previous week and there were correspondingly slight gains in the number of continued claims filed by the unemployed during the week ending July 2," Mr. England pointed out. Of the 722 claims that marked the increase over the previous week only 172 were for unemployment compensation benefits under the state law while 550 were for readjustment allowances under the G. I. Bill.

During the week ending July 2 the Division of Employment Security pointed out $3,245,290 in unemployment compensation benefits under the state law, and another $504,252 were paid to veterans under the G. I. Bill.

Parental Assistance Needed During Summer States Chief

In a recent radio broadcast Police Chief Purcell urged parents to warn their children of the danger of motor vehicles during the vacation period. He stated: "School is now closed for the summer vacation and, frankly, it develops a problem for your police department."

"When schools are open, all of the children of school age are pretty much under control. That is, they pass to and from school at definite hours of the day and cross the streets at definite places. Consequently, we can station officers at the designated crossings and see to it that they cross the streets safely. We receive splendid help from the school Safety Patrols which keep the youngsters in line and do not allow them to dart across the street between crossings, cut corners, and so forth."

"The school children of Newton are safety conscious and alert in their use of streets and highways. This situation has been developed by the splendid safety educational facilities presented in our schools. The teachers are doing a fine job and they are to be congratulated."

"However, our problem develops almost the day after the school has closed for a vacation. The younger children are likely to forget their safety lessons. The discipline instilled by the supervision of the Student Safety Patrol is missing and they have lost to some degree, the safety consciousness which has been developed during the school term. Then our problem develops: it is then that we need parental assistance."

"Now, when I say parental assistance, I mean simply this: Repeat your warnings about street and highway safety frequently. Check up on where your children are playing. Determine which route they use in going to the park or playground and make certain it is the safest one. Instill in their minds the need for crossing at crosswalks or at points where there are traffic lights or traffic officers."

"I realize, of course, that during the school term—much of this teaching is handled by the teachers—it is part of the safety training they receive. But children, particularly small children, forget and WHEN CHILDREN FORGET YOU MUST THINK FOR THEM."

"Warn them frequently and bear in mind always, if you will, that policemen cannot be everywhere. However, your police department will do everything to make this a safe vacation for your children."

"We will be on the watch for make them safe bicycle riders, and safe pedestrians, but we do need your help."

"Incidentally, along that line, one of the best things a parent can do is to set a good example. You can hardly expect your youngsters to be safe pedestrians if you do not observe the traffic regulations which have been established for pedestrian safety. Nor can you expect a child to regard traffic law seriously if you fail to obey them. If you do not stop for a stop sign, how can you expect your youngster when he is riding his bicycle."

"Your police department is co-operating with the Massachusetts Safety Council and will do all in its power to make this summer vacation a safe one for your children. Please help us by giving them the necessary parental advice from time to time, check up on where they are playing and with whom they are associating and set them a good example."

Ralph Chambers Tennis Pro

At Longwood Cricket Club In Chestnut Hill

Telephone: Longwood 6-3900

Even if it's just so you can say "I'll be the fourth" (in doubles) with confidence, now's the time to brush up on your tennis. Maybe you didn't know, but Ralph Chambers' Tennis Shop at Longwood Cricket Club is not confined to club members. By telephoning ahead, you can arrange to have a 3 1/2 hour lesson on grass courts or clay with the man who's been Longwood's professional for 15 years, and he, who when tennis coach for 14 seasons at West Point, never coached a losing team. All of which makes him sound as if he's ancient, which he's not! And if it's just sports gear or tennis equipment you need, Ralph's Shop - just inside the front entrance of the club - is the logical place to get it.

Tallino's

1268 Boylston Street Chestnut Hill

Telephone: BEacon 2-1749

It's Tallino's, the slick new-faced restaurant on the Worcester Turnpike at the Brookline-Newton line, for your experimental summer eating-outs... and I'll bet you'll make it a year-round habit. A most attractive place for lunch, cocktails, or supper... Tallino's was established in 1910 by the present owner's father. It has always been acclaimed for its excellent food, but only within the last year was it completely re-modeled. The main dining room, on the left as you go in, is a gay atmosphere in itself with its red and green decorations and large picture windows. To the right of the entrance is the lounge where you can eat too, and be served at the blonde-maple bar, the only one of its kind in the east as far as Frank B. Tallino knows. And upstairs are several private dining rooms, available for special occasions. Every night in the lounge Sid Ryans entertains at his piano. When Tallino's was begun, Italian food was the specialty. They still offer it, and so many other delicious meals besides, that you'll have a hard time deciding what you do want when you see the menu. It'd be smart to phone for your dinner reservation to make sure you won't have to wait. Tallino's motto is "Every visit is a pleasant memory," and I might add, it's the coolest place in town!

The Boulevard Pharmacy

2090 Commonwealth Avenue Telephone: BIGelow 4-2336

The three registered pharmacists in the Boulevard Pharmacy also happen to be three old friends. Theodore Dangelmeier started the store in 1915. Four years later he brought in John E. Turner to help him, and as business progressed more, George S. Heliwood came in two years after that. In their good-natured ways, any one of them will give you sound advice on every question from how to chase away a pimple to how to catch a man. And to be quite serious for a moment, Boulevard's general drug business and prescription service is absolutely dependable.

Tarlowsky Specialty Shop

753 Beacon Street In Newton Centre

It seems as if we're always walking into Tarlowsky's just a few minutes before closing time; and we've never yet met a day when we haven't come home raving about some "different" dress or bathing suit, an unusual cotton or a devastating "dressier dress," always something. Sounds like a cliché, but you'll want to browse for yourself. It's a mother and son business, and they're new to Newton since the end of May. Mrs. Tarlowsky, who formerly did custom dressmaking, shares another name shop, four years old, with her son on Shirley Street in Revere.

Driben

Footwear of Personality

767 Beacon Street Newton Centre

Harry Driben announces that the shop is having an after-the-fourth sale right now of all white summer shoes for women, all Keddettes, summer sandals, and Selby Styl-eez. Children's whites and sandals are on sale too, as are those snappy men's browns and whites. Everyone loves a bargain, and everyone gets in on this one.

Dr. Wm. D. Rowland

Funeral services were held in the Eliot Church Chapel Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 for Dr. William D. Rowland of 166 Oakleigh road, Newton, who died on Friday, July 1.

Dr. Rowland was in his 70th year. He was an eye surgeon with offices at 140 Marlboro street, Boston. A native of New-castle, Pennsylvania, he received his undergraduate training at Antioch College and practiced in New Jersey for a short time before entering the Army Medical Corps during World War I, where he served as a captain. He was graduated from the Michigan Medical School and was chief of the eye staff for several years at Massachusetts Memorial Hospitals. He also was formerly a professor of ophthalmology at Boston University Medical School.

In 1919 he married Miss Helen A. Fulton of Lynn, former nurse at the Homeopathic Base Hospital Unit, and came to Newton where he had since made his home.

He was a member of the American Medical Association, various other medical organizations and was a Mason.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Helen A. Rowland, a daughter Mrs. Virginia R. McKibbin of Syracuse, New York and two grandchildren.

FOR VACATION VARIETY CHOOSE NEW ENGLAND

Here you will find the peace of vacation life—200 miles of ocean front, sunny beaches, sprawling lawns—near white villages, a town countryside, hills and mountains, the stage upon which much of our country's history was enacted—all within a few hours drive of one another.

Attend country auctions, county fairs, visit famous vacation centers, rough it in primitive woodlands, drive over miles of modern highways through scenic splendor. Sit down in a motel of Boston Bayed Beach, ocean-front hotel, chowder. Picnic in any of 545 state forests and recreation, enjoy a clam bake along the coast.

Throughout New England you'll find all the elements of a memorable vacation—in wide variety.

THE NEW ENGLAND COUNCIL
Stetter Building, Boston, Mass.
Many New England vacation spots are listed in our booklet.

Vacation visitors spend $750,000,000 annually in our six states, benefiting every one of us.

Let all of us—the gas station attendant, the room clerk, the sales person and the average citizen show every courtesy to our out-of-state guests. Help them have a good time! Send them home singing the praises of New England—so that they and their friends will come back again—and again.

What helps New England, helps all of us!

Plan a visit to Hood's Cherry Hill Farm home of Hood's Certified Milk

in North Beverly, Mass., on Route 128

As you know, Certified Milk is the finest milk that is sold. There are less than 100 dairies in the whole United States qualified to produce this superior milk. Our own Cherry Hill Farm in North Beverly, Massachusetts, is one of these carefully-selected few. It is operated in accordance with the strict rules of the local Medical Milk Commission.

Visitors are always welcome

at Cherry Hill. A glance at the map will show you that the farm can be easily reached from any direction. It's a delightful drive over good roads through the beautiful country of Boston's famous North Shore.

Bring the whole family!

There is always ample parking space at Hood's Cherry Hill Farm. There are swings, slides and other amusements for the children... as well as picnic tables and facilities for luncheon. Come and see first hand the Hood methods of producing a superior quality milk. See the fine, healthy cows and spry, playful calves. Observe the immaculate dairy barns.

Watch Hood's trained technicians at work in the modern laboratory where Hood's Certified Milk is tested regularly. Look over the rich Cherry Hill pasture lands and the fertile fields that produce the feed crops. Let one of the trained attendants explain how the crops are treated and preserved so that the winter feed equals summer standards, thus guaranteeing the year-round uniformity of Hood's Certified Milk. Because of this uniformly high quality, Hood's Cherry Hill Certified Milk meets the exacting standards of infants, invalids, and those who demand the best even though it may cost a few pennies more. Plan a day or an afternoon at Hood's Cherry Hill Farm soon. It's fun for the whole family.

Ceremony to Mark Theatre Opening

The official ceremony inaugurating the third season of the Wellesley Summer Theatre in Alumnae Hall on the Wellesley campus will be held at 8:30 Tuesday evening, July 12. This gala event before the season's premiere, "Pygmalion," starring the celebrated stage and screen star, Sylvia Sydney, will be broadcast direct from the stage of Alumnae Hall over the 26 stations of the Yankee Network. Featured speakers at this opening ceremony will be J. Austin Peckham, chairman of the Board of Selectmen of the Town of Wellesley; Dr. Margaret Clapp, president of Wellesley College; A. Edwin Larsson, editor of the Wellesley Townsman; James S. Powers, director of the Yankee Network Institute; Eldon Winkler, executive director of the Summer Theatre and School; and Miss Sidney, the guest star for the week.

Bill Will Permit Un-Employment Pay For Vacation Shutdowns

A person who is out of work because of a plant shutdown for vacation purposes may receive unemployment compensation benefits if he does not receive pay from his employer under a bill that is about to be signed by Governor Dever, it was announced by Antonio England, Director of the Division of Employment Security.

"This bill has been approved by both branches of the legislature and is now on the Governor's desk for signature," Mr. England stated. "An emergency preamble to the bill will make it effective as soon as it is signed."

"The reason for calling this bill to the attention of the public at this time is that many plants, offices and other places of employment close down for the first part of July. Any men and women who are out of work for this reason and not eligible for or not entitled to vacation pay should protect their rights to unemployment compensation benefits by filing a claim at their employment office as soon as they are out of work."

"Under this new bill they may receive credit for the waiting period of one week, if they have not already done so, or unemployment compensation benefits if they are otherwise eligible."

"Unemployment compensation benefits may be paid under the provisions of this bill regardless of any contract or agreement the worker may have directly or indirectly entered into with his employer," Director England added.

News From The State House

By HELEN L. RING

A verbal battle took place on the floor of the House of Representatives Wednesday afternoon lasting three hours. The bill-S-736 called for placing the office of Director of the Division of Smoke Inspection in the Dept. of Public Utilities under the Civil Service laws. The battle waged on whether the Director, Mr. Doyle, son of an Editor of a leading Boston newspaper was a veteran of two wars. Rep. Murphy of Malden, led the fight to have this bill recommitted to Committee on Ways and Means. Rep. Boynton of Boston lost his temper and flew into a verbal battle with Rep. Casey of Pittsfield accusing Rep. Casey of being stupid. This immediately brought reprisals from both parties. Rep. Casey holding his own by returning the compliment. Mr. Doyle was accused of neglecting his duties. He has not prosecuted any cases during his term of office. The bill was recommitted to Committee on Ways and Means on a roll call.

The bill reducing the age requirement for old age assistance from 65 years to 60 years old was heard in the House of Representatives on Wednesday afternoon. After much discussion the Speaker of the House, Rep. Thomas J. O'Neill, called a recess. He announced that a democratic caucus will be held in Room 480, for one half hour. All democrats marched out to attend meeting. Instead of returning in the time announced they returned in 2 hours. The purpose of the meeting was that appropriations for payment to persons 60 years and over was not made, and, until a tax program is presented to the legislature for action nothing can be done. It is estimated that 26,000 persons will be added to the rolls and will boost the cost to $20 millions to the State. Upon their return at 5:45 p.m. a message from Governor Dever was read to the legislature. It called for $1,155,174 for a supplementary budget. In this budget Gov. Dever asked that the Legislature appropriate $150,000 to permit the State to hire legal and technical experts to carry the State's fight against increased telephone rates to the Supreme Judicial Court, also $250,000 additional for the Veterans Housing Authority. They are now receiving $250,000. After completion of reading the Governor's message the House continued to debate on the pension bill. The question now before the House is whether the bill should go to a third reading. Rep. Murphy asked for postponement until next Wednesday. There were some objections to postponement. However, the bill will be heard in the House next Wednesday, July 13th. Plenty of fireworks will be set off on that afternoon.

The Senate passed H-2639 on Tuesday, providing for an outdoor swimming pool in Brighton near the Charles River open to everyone living in Newton, Watertown, and Boston. (The location is near Faneuil). Sen. Holmes, Rep. of Weymouth opposed the expenditure out of State Funds. Senators Lee, of Newton, Furbush and Bowker spoke in favor pointing out that the pool would be an M.D.C. project paid for by the Metropolitan area only and was necessary because of the dangerous pollution of the Charles River. The bill, however, was passed on a voice vote. It had previously passed the House.

It was stated in the Senate that Commissioner Henry F. Long stick to his job as commissioner of collection of State Taxes instead of fighting against people who wish to buy liquor in other states. Sen. Daniel F. O'Brien of Cambridge, Democrat presented an order to the Senate demanding Mr. Long's presence before the State Senate to answer questions about his administration. This order will be heard before the Rules Committee. The order sets forth that Mr. Long appear before the Senate for the purpose of explaining the tax structure of the Commonwealth and answer such questions relating to taxation, methods used, by said commissioner in the assessment, collection, allocation and distribution of all taxes, etc.

It is good news to learn that Route 128, 19 mile road, 4 lanes will now be built. This road starts from the Turnpike in Wellesley thru Newton in the vicinity of Riverside to Lynnfield by-passing all busy business districts. It was given top priority in the State's $100 million dollar program. It will cost $20 million dollars. This bill was filed by several representatives, one of whom is Rep. George Rawson of Newton. H-1771 petition providing for the extension of Nonantum Road-Route 128 in Newton by the M.D.C. was rejected by the Legislature.

Cap Air Show to Be Biggest Yet Given

The people will have an opportunity to see the greatest display of military air power ever staged in New England at the gigantic air show to be held at Bedford Air Base Saturday and Sunday, July 16 and 17. Colonel Kenneth M. Rose, Mass. Wing Commander announced today. Jet participation from Mitchell Field, Otis Field, and Dow Field has been assured as well as F-51s from Grenier Field; Navy fighters, and bombers from Quonset and Squantum. Demonstrations by the Air National Guard and the USAF Reserves at Bedford will comprise the military part of the show. In addition there will be paper cutting contests, balloon busting contests, and prizes will be awarded to the private pilot flying from the greatest distance. Many of the latest types of civilian aircraft will be on display and demonstrated.

Advance sale tickets are now on sale at many of the leading stores throughout the state.

PROCLAMATION

"War On Poison Ivy and Rag Weed"

WHEREAS a state-wide campaign is underway to eradicate poison ivy and rag weed from all areas of Massachusetts during the summer of 1949 and

EVERY year countless children and adults are incapacitated by serious infections after contact with the poison vine and, THE pollen of rag weed causes and aggravates hay fever in persons sensitive to this pollen and

MANY persons being unable to recognize the common poison ivy vine, a herbage poisonous to touch, and

WHEREAS rag weed (giant and dwarf type) is the worst of all plants causing hay fever and, WHICH partially or wholly incapacitates many persons annually from pollen time until frost and

WHEREAS the elimination of such weeds is a health measure comparable to water purification and a function in which all persons in the community should interest themselves and

SINCE the responsibility of locating and eliminating poison ivy and rag weed in all areas wherever existing should not be left to any one individual and,

A SUCCESSFUL eradication program requires the cooperation of all persons and all organizations with the extensive operations of the City Forestry and Health Departments,

THEREFORE I, Theodore R. Lockwood, as Mayor of Newton hereby urge all citizens and property owners, also owners of vacant lots, to assist and support the poison ivy and rag weed eradication program by spraying the common poison ivy vine with weed killer and by pulling rag weed in all areas.

THEODORE R. LOCKWOOD, Mayor

Sen. Lee Announces Plans For Swimming Pool and Dam; Legislature Passes Bills

Pool Will Serve Residents Of Newton and Watertown

The Legislature has recently passed two bills of particular interest to Newton residents. One of these is the provision for a swimming pool to be built at the Faneuil Playground by the Metropolitan District Commission. This pool will serve young people and others in Newton, Brighton, Cambridge and Watertown. It will, in fact, be open to all members of the public and will be most accessible to those living on the north side of Newton and in Brighton and Allston.

Because of the chronic pollution of the Charles River, a pool of this sort will furnish the only swimming facilities which can be safely used in this area. A very spacious pool is planned, about 375 feet, with diving boards at one end and a shallow area at the other end for beginners. There will also be a wading pool and bath house, and the whole will be attractively landscaped. A nominal charge may be made to defray operating expenses.

This construction is based upon a bill filed by Representative Graham of Brighton, which was furthered by Senator Richard H. Lee of Newton, who sat on the Metropolitan Affairs Committee and who was in charge of the bill in the Senate.

The other matter is the Bemis Dam, also on the Charles River at Bemis street, above Watertown Square. This dam is of a type referred to as a "rolling dam" and dates back to Colonial days when water power was used to run the adjacent mills. In recent times the water power has not been used and the dam has been allowed to fall into disrepair. Although it has no value for power, the dam would serve to keep a constant water level over a stretch of river covering a marshy area and to prevent mosquito breeding. One end of the dam is in Newton, the other in Watertown. Municipal officials of Newton, Watertown and Waltham have proposed that the M.D.C. take the dam and keep it in repair, both as an historic site and as a method of regulating the water. The owner has offered to give the dam and flowage rights to the M.D.C. upon condition that the dam be reconstructed and a retaining wall and boat portage be built and certain fill made in the adjacent land. In addition to this, the Department of Conservation insists that a fishway be built if the dam is to be reconstructed. There are no migratory fish now in the river and those which have swum up in the past 200 years have done so without benefit of a fishway; in fact, any self-respecting salmon could jump the falls at this point. Nevertheless, the Department of Conservation hopes to rid this river of pollution at some future time and to attract fish by the use of fishways. All of

Members Enjoy Visit
To New Cruiser

One hundred and thirty-five day campers and counselors from the Newton Y.M.C.A.'s Camp Massasoit enjoyed an exciting visit to the United States Navy's new cruiser, the U.S.S. Salem, anchored at the Boston Naval Shipyard Monday morning.

The ship's overall length of 716 feet and displacement of 17,000 tons make her comparable in size with some of the famous "dreadnoughts" of the first World War. In efficiency and sea-worthiness, she is unsurpassed by anything afloat.

The Salem shares with her sister ship, the Newport News, the distinction of being the Navy's only completely air conditioned warships. The greatly increased fire power of the Salem is perhaps her most important feature. Her main battery consists of nine eight-inch, 55 caliber guns, triple mounted in three turrets. This new heavy cruiser carries more than 1000 officers and men.

Richard B. Simmons, Camp Director, led the tour. The group left the Association building at 9:30 a.m. and returned at noon time.

Richard I. Dwyer Attends Preview Of Buick Special

Richard I. Dwyer, Newton Buick dealer, went to Boston on Monday, July 18, to attend a preview of the new Buick Special model which will be introduced to the public next month.

Some 167 dealers from the Boston zone were present at the all-day session which was held at the Copley-Plaza Hotel, with the meeting being described as Buick's most important, full-fledged dealer convention since before the war.

The Special is Buick's lowest-priced model and is reported to be completely redesigned. It has been eagerly awaited by the industry since the former model went out of production last December.

Thomas J. Crosby, zone manager, presided and, with his staff, relayed to dealers technical and descriptive data on the Special, which they obtained during a field sales organization convention in Flint, Mich., July 11-13. Talks on films were presented to dealers by Buick top management covering all phases of manufacturing, engineering, sales and merchandising.

To Stock Bass In Charles, Turtle Pond

Good news for all local fishermen.

The "Parkway Angler," deputy warden Fred J. Hogardt has just received word from Robert H. Johnson, director of fisheries and game in Massachusetts, that the state will stock fresh-water bass in the Charles River and Turtle Pond in the Stony Brook Reservation during the next few weeks. The bass will come from the Federal hatcheries at Nashua, N. H.

Since this is the first stocking of bass in local waters in many years, it should mean better fishing right here in our own back yard.

Warden Hogardt asks local sportsmen to cooperate in building up the bass supply here by not taking undersized fish and only those you can use.

Evening Musicales Presented By Pupils

An evening musicale was presented by the Newton pupils of Marjorie A. Shult recently in the Unitarian Parish House, Weston.

Taking part in the first presentation were David Richards, Mary Ellen Russell, Jimmie Mazzinovitch, Cary Rosca, Jane Quirk, Palyanne Beckland, Marilyn Graves, M. Giordano, Marianne Carruthers, Dianne Cullington, Alice Crestafano, Terry DeVito, Elizabeth Deluca, were presented by Mrs. Schult at the piano.

Savings Bank Announces Deposits Over $32,000,000

At the quarterly meeting of the Newton Savings Bank held July 5, it was announced by the president, Joseph Earl Perry, that the total deposits of the bank, including cash accounts, total more than $32,000,000, all of which are insured in full, and that the total assets of the bank are now almost $36,000,000.

Savings Bank Life Insurance policies issued and now in force total almost $15,000,000. Dividends paid on July 11, 1949, increased the total amount of dividends paid by the bank since inception over 120 years ago to $20,594,450.33.

The following local men continue to serve the bank as trustees: Walter R. Amesbury, Fredrick S. Bacon, Henry E. Bothfeld, Henry S. Bothfeld, Theodore L. Buell, Arthur G. Curren, Marshall B. Dalton, Richard I. Dwyer, Frederick A. Hawkins, Walter L. McCammon, Richard M. Nichols, Joseph Earl Perry, Marvin B. Perry, Howard W. Selby, Earl P. Stevenson, Stanley F. Teale, William H. Volger, Clifford H. Walker and Dr. Guy M. Winslow.

The president also announced that the total investment of the bank in mortgages in Newton and vicinity is almost $10,000,000. He also reported that the bank has helped more than 100 veterans to secure homes in the Oak Hill Development alone.

Dr. Edwin P. Booth To Preach At Union Services July 17-24

The Rev. Edwin Prince Booth will be the guest preacher at the next two summer union services on July 17 and 24 at the Second Church in West Newton.

Dr. Booth is Professor of Historical Theology at Boston University where he has taught in the Schools of Theology, Religious Education and Social Service for 25 years. He is well known to Newtonites both as a lecturer in Christian biography and for his Lenten lectures in local churches.

This year marks the fourteenth season in which six to nine churches in the western part of Newton have worshiped together during the summer.

The co-operating churches and their ministers are: Centenary Methodist Church, Rev. Sidney Adams; Auburndale Congregational Church, Rev. Charles Blossom; Central Congregational Church, Rev. Randolph S. Merrill; Church of the Open Word, Rev. Horace W. Briggs; First Unitarian Society in Newton, Rev. Herbert Hitchen; Lincoln Park Baptist Church, Rev. William E. Blake; Newton Highlands Congregational Church, Rev. Frederic Groetsma; Newtonville Methodist Church, Rev. Hamilton M. Gifford; and the Second Church in Newton, Rev. R. Clyde Yarbrough.

The Rev. B. Ralston Bax of Ealing Green Congregational Church preached at union services on July 3 and July 10, and will return on July 17. The services through August and on September 4 will be conducted at the Newtonville Methodist Church.

Newton Chamber Of Commerce Bulletin

The following bulletin issued by the Newton Chamber of Commerce, shows employment and payrolls in Newton:

Figures covering employment and payrolls in Manufacturing Establishments in Newton for the month of May 1949 are compared with the month of May 1948.

Average number of Employees, 1949, 3559; 1948, 3966; Change, 407; Percent, -102.

Amount of Payrolls for Month, 1949, $660,411.00; 1948, $759,360.00. Change, $98,949.00; Percent, -13.3.

The State average on Employment for May 1949 was 15.7 percent less than May 1948; Newton was 10.3 percent less for the same month. The amount paid in wages in the State for May 1949 was 16.7 percent less than May 1948; Newton was 13.3 percent less. The average wage in Newton for May 1949 was $42.82 against $44.15 for May 1948.

The following figures compare May 1940 with May 1949:

Average number of Employees, 1940, 2975; 1949, 3559; Change, 587; Percent, 16.5.

Amount of Payrolls for month, 1940, $242,597.00; 1949, $660,411.00. Change, $417,814.00; Percent, 172.

June 1949—Food, 188.4; Clothing, 185.7; Shelter, 117.4; Fuel and Light, 163.5; Sundries, 138.6; Combined, 160.

Purchasing power of the Dollar 1935-1939, 1.00; June 1949, $6.250. For the month of June 1949, 27 Residential $302,200.00; 16 Non Residential, $751,500.00; Alterations and Repairs $67,240.00; TOTAL $376,955.00.

You can be certain of only two things—FIRST, that some kind of a tax program will go thru, and SECOND, that the State lottery is dead and will stay dead. Here's the way matters stand:—

Of the eight-item program of the Governor, totalling $23 million, the racing tax has been compromised so as to yield $1.3 million instead of $1.8 million. The gross receipts tax on public utilities ($3.5 million) and the increase tax on unincorporated business (4% million) have been rejected.

The other five items (savings banks, commercial banks, insurance companies, auto sales and alcoholic beverages) totalling

Advises Owner to Make It Hard to Steal Cars

In a statement released this week to Newton automobile owners, Chief Philip Purcell of the Newton Police Department urged motorists to protect their cars against theft.

"In 1948 automobile thefts reached third place in crimes committed throughout the United States," the chief stated. "It is estimated over 169,000 cars were stolen to a total value of $144,000,000. This is a slight decrease from 1947, but this type of crime is still a major problem."

"It is a very important aid in locating a stolen car for the officer to have accurate and complete information—owner's correct name and address, registration number, motor number, maker's number, color of car, make of car, body type, value, as well as any other information which might be useful in identifying it."

"Owners are urged to keep this information handy in case their car is stolen, so that investigation may not be delayed."

"Under Massachusetts law, no person having control or charge of a motor vehicle shall allow such vehicle to stand in any way and remain unattended without first locking or making it fast or effectively setting the brakes thereon, and stopping the motor of said vehicle."

"LOCK YOUR CAR. Experience has shown that the biggest percentage of cars stolen were not locked and that keys were left in the ignition. This is a temptation to every potential automobile thief."

"LET'S make it hard to steal our cars."

Contract Awarded

The contract for the construction of a sanitary sewer on private land at Woodland and Reservoir drives, amounting to $7,243.50, has been awarded by the Street Commissioners of the City of Newton, to C. Russo of Rosindale, Gainsway Construction News reported today.

waiting for a so-called 'master plan' of recreation that you may never be responsible for its accomplishment?

"With the admission of your own recreation commissioner in his report to you regarding the lack of sanitary facilities at the various playgrounds don't you,

Mr. Mayor, have a feeling of a guilty conscience that these polluted land playgrounds are an added link to the same guilty conscience you must have toward the pollution of the most needed Charles River beaches?"

In closing his remarks to an enthusiastic gathering, Mr. Janse said, "Now is the time Mr. Mayor for you to give answer to these questions, not only to the 'kids' of Newton but to their mothers and fathers who pay taxes or rents for the support of your administration. You wouldn't be where you are at city hall but for them. Now is the time to give answer or will they give you answer, Tuesday, Nov. 8 when I succeed in office?"

$13.6 million are before House Ways and Means. If all these pending items were adopted, there would be a gap of $8 million or more. But there's a slim chance of the Legislature swallowing all five items in two. The best that is looked for is a compromise on some of them. So the gap will be much larger.

House Ways and Means holds the key to the situation. Contrary to common belief, it is not limited to reporting only on the five unreported items. It has sufficient authority to bring out any new items or to revive any of the rejected items, whenever it wishes.

Even Hubby of Old Had Gripe Against Lipstick

The next time that sweet young thing leaves pancake make-up or lipstick on your white suit—just grit your teeth and bear it, chum, for you couldn't say anything about the evils of cosmetics that hasn't been said before.

According to researchers, history is filled with the unheeded, anticosmetic walls of distraught males.

Lucian, the Greek writer, who probably found his toga besmirched by the lead carbonate used as face powder by the Greek damsels, opened up with this pointed criticism about 200 B.C.:

"You dye your hair, but you will not dye your old age, nor will you stretch the wrinkles out of your cheeks. Do not then plaster the whole of your face with paint so that you have a mask not a face, for it is no use. Why, are you mad? A paint and wash will never make a Hecuba a Helen of Troy."

Ischomachus, another ancient author, sums up the husband attitude by writing about his fifteen-year-old wife.

"One day I saw her with a lot of rouge to make her redder, and high heels to make her taller. I pointed out to her that she was doing as dishonorable a thing, in trying to deceive me about her looks, as I should if I tried to deceive her about my property. I remarked that though her art might deceive others, it could not influence him who saw her at all times."

Brighten That Corner

My living room measures 12 x 17 feet. I am planning on purchasing a rose davenport, one chair in blue, the other in gold. What color wallpaper would you suggest to blend with these colors, and what color drapes and lamps? My bedroom set is 18th century mahogany and I would like wallpaper and a color scheme that will blend. I am very fond of chartreuse and wonder if this color could be used with my suite?

Your recommendations regarding color scheme for kitchen, dining room and bath would be appreciated.

J. B. G.

Since chartreuse is a rather modern color, we suggest that you use it in the living room and confine your bedroom scheme to softer colors. The furniture you mention would go well with gray and gold paper, plain gray draperies and a gray rug. For a little more unusual scheme, and one that would include chartreuse, you might have a forest green davenport, one chair in a stripe or print (contrary to the wallpaper) of deep green and chartreuse, the other chair plain chartreuse. Accessories could be bittersweet, American beauty or coral. Wallpaper, draperies and rug as above.

Follow the same ideas for the dining room; have chair seats in whatever accent color you choose for the living room.

The kitchen could have butter yellow walls, gray linoleum, delphinium blue furniture, draperies in blue, yellow and gray; accessories in red.

An attractive bathroom could have gray linoleum, aqua walls, accessories in aqua and burgundy or brown.

Rose and gray wallpaper would be ideal for your bedroom with draperies of rose antique satin; a rose rug; spread and lamps in jade green or aqua.

An ostrich that insists on sticking its head in the sand may have its own end in view.

Calcium-Rich Rice Pudding Is Made With Dry Skim Milk

HOW to get enough milk in tempting form into family meals and how to get enough protein into the menu without bursting budget bounds are two ever-present problems in the housewife's daily routine.

Dry skim milk, which for the first time has been made available in grocery stores, can be relied on to help solve this difficulty, for it is at the same time an economical source of essential milk nourishment and of high quality protein. And it is certainly a real budget aid, for it costs the equivalent of between six and seven cents a quart for fluid skim milk.

This dry skim milk has all the goodness of milk from which the cream has been poured off, and can be used in either of two easy ways in any recipe calling for milk. Mix it with water and put it in your favorite recipe like any other fluid milk; or add it with the dry ingredients and use water as the liquid in the recipe.

A milk pudding served as dessert on a low-meat or no-meat menu can be relied on to bolster up the protein count and to take care of some of the day's milk requirement. This rice pudding enriched with dry skim milk, made taste-tempting with raisins or dates, will do a lot to increase appetite satisfaction, too.

Dry Skim Milk Rice Pudding
2 cups cooked rice 1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup raisins 1/2 teaspoon salt
1 egg 2 cups water
6 tablespoons dry 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
skim milk 1 tablespoon butter

Place rice and raisins in greased casserole. Mix well. Beat egg slightly. Gradually add dry skim milk, mixing well. Add sugar and salt. Add water. Mix well. Pour over rice mixture. Sprinkle top with cinnamon. Dot with butter. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) about 50 minutes or until top is brown. Stir occasionally during baking. Makes 6 servings.

Vets' Quiz

Q—I served more than three years in the U. S. Army during World War II. I now wish to take institutional on-farm training, and would like to know how much training I will be permitted to take?

A—An institutional on-farm training course may be as long as, but no longer than, is necessary to meet your individual training needs or until you have exhausted your four-year period of eligibility.

Q—Do I have to meet any set standard if I am taking an on-farm training course?

A—Yes. Once you start training, it is your responsibility to meet the standards of progress set by the institution in which you are enrolled. If you fail, your benefits will be discontinued.

Q—What farming tools and farming implements do I get while I am taking an on-farm training course under the GI Bill?

A—VA will furnish you with no tools or farm equipment since these are articles with which the farm must be equipped to meet the provisions of the law. However, books and incidental supplies required for classroom work will be furnished you.

Q—I am a veteran of World War II. What is the latest date on which I can start on-farm training under the GI Bill?

A—You may commence training within four years from July 25, 1947, or within four years from your discharge or separation from service, whichever is later.

Program of Homemaking at Amherst July 21

Homemakers from 11 counties and nearby states will hear the "Challenge to the American Home" by Mrs. T. Grafton Abbott of Cambridge during homemaking activities, July 21 at the University of Massachusetts.

Speaking to homemakers at 11:00 o'clock during Farm and Home Day events, Mrs. Abbott will discuss methods of preserving the essential values of a happy home life. Mrs. Abbott is Executive Director of the Rhode Island Social Hygiene Association and Vice President of the New England Council on Family Relations.

"Adventures in Arts and Crafts" will be the 10:15 topic of Frank A. Staples, Director of Arts and Crafts for the National Recreation Association.

Homemaking events begin at 10:00 o'clock in Skinner Hall auditorium with group singing led by Doris Alviani, Assistant Professor of Music at the University.

At 2:00 o'clock the homemakers will join the home garden section in Memorial Hall for a panel discussion of flower arrangement. In charge of the demonstrations are Alfred W. Boicourt, Extension horticulturist, and Donald E. Ross, Assistant Professor of Floriculture.

Beatrice E. Billings, Home Demonstration leader, announces the State Home Demonstration Council will hold its annual meeting during the day. Mrs. Alton A. Boan of Westport will be chairman.

Farm and Home Day visitors join sessions at 4:00 o'clock in Bowker Auditorium of Stockbridge Hall for a talk by Raymond Dennet, Director of the World Peace Foundation in Boston. Dennet's topic will be "The Individual in International Affairs."

When they pulled the absent-minded professor, half drowned, from the lake, he sputtered, "How exasperating! I've just remembered that I can swim."

Father: Well, son, how are your marks?
Son: They're under water.
Father: What do you mean under water?
Son: Below C level.

Too Much Frosting Can Over-balance Eating Quality

Perhaps the one question that this department receives most often is how best to frost a cake.

A good frosting makes a cake more attractive as well as accenting the flavor and texture.

A light, fluffy frosting is used on a tender, delicate cake. While butter-cream type frosting may be swathed on a fine textured cake, it should be remembered that too much frosting is unmanageable and over-balances the eating quality. Too little frosting, of course, is unattractive.

Here is one simple recipe for frosting you might like to try.

SEVEN-MINUTE ICING

1 1/2 cups sugar

2 egg whites

1/3 cup water

1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar

1/4 teaspoon salt

Place all ingredients in the top of a double boiler over boiling water. Beat continuously for seven minutes or until frosting stands in peaks when beater is lifted. Beat in one teaspoon of flavoring. Remove from water. Continue beating for two minutes. Let cool slightly. This amount will frost two nine-inch or three eight-inch pans.

This wonderful frosting may be varied by using light brown sugar in the place of white sugar.

To frost: Cut a circle about one inch smaller than the cake to be frosted from a piece of waxed paper. Place the waxed paper from which the round piece has been cut on the cake plate. This will keep the plate clean during the frosting process. Put a layer of cake on the plate, right over the cut out circle. Waxed paper will then overlap the edges.

Use a flexible spatula to spread the frosting. Use care to avoid mixing cake crumbs in the frosting. The waxed paper may be cut with scissors and removed without disturbing the appearance of the cake.

Snowy Cream Frosting

1/2 cup butter

2 1/4 cups confectioners sugar

2 1/4 tablespoons milk

1 teaspoon salt

1 teaspoon vanilla

Soften the butter and add the milk-vanilla mixture alternately with the sugar-salt mixture.

For chocolate frosting replace 1/4 cup sugar with 1/4 cup sifted cocoa. Increase milk one tablespoon per cup of dry ingredients.

This grand cream frosting adds richness and flavor to the cake; it stays moist, and the consistency is easily controlled.

Strawberry Pecan Shortcake

1/2 cup shortening

2 cups sifted flour

3 teaspoons baking powder

1/2 teaspoon salt

3 tablespoons sugar

1 egg

1/2 cup milk

1/2 cup broken pecan nuts

meats

Sift together the flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Cut in shortening with pastry blender until the mixture is the consistency of cornmeal. Combine well the eggs and milk. Add to

Riley-Hines

In the Church of Our Lady Help of Christians Saturday morning, July 9, Miss Maureen Hines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Joseph Hines of Newton, became the bride of John Patrick Riley, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Riley of Medford. Rev. Arthur Norton performed the ceremony at 9 o'clock. A reception followed at the Copley Plaza Hotel.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Duchess satin with a collar of rosepoint lace and a long train. Her veil of white tulle was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a white prayer book with gardenias and lilies of the valley.

She was attended by Miss Claire A. Haller of Waban as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Russell H. Horton, Miss Anna L. Mahoney, Miss Jean M. Bova, all of Newtonville; Miss Natalie F. Brink, Miss Priscilla C. Hallett, both of Newton, and Miss A. Patricia Dugan of Quincy. All the attendants wore white organdy gowns with pink satin sashes and each carried a single pink rose. Judith E. Delaney, niece of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a frock of white organdy and pink satin with a pink bonnet.

William J. Riley of Medford was best man for his brother. The ushers were John P. Maguire of New York City, Jack A. Schultz of Paterson, N. J., Joseph A. Riley of Medford, Paul A. Hines of Newton, Joseph A. Kraatz of West Roxbury and Nicholas A. Del Nino of Medford.

The bride attended the Fisher School and the Nursery Training School of Boston. Mr. Riley is a graduate of Tabor Academy and Clark School, Hanover, New Hampshire and of Dartmouth College where he was captain of the hockey team and a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

Following a month at Dennisport, Mr. and Mrs. Riley will live at 1907 Commonwealth avenue.

Mathematics Teacher: Now, if I lay three eggs here and five eggs over there, how many eggs will I have?

Interested Pupil: Well, to tell you the truth, I don't believe you can do it, sir.

Weddings

Black-Yount

A garden reception at the home of her parents followed the ceremony on Saturday, July 9, when Miss Elizabeth Ann Yount, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert L. Yount of Waban, became the bride of Mr. Wallace Gordon Black, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Bruce Black of Waban, and "Twin Valley Farm," Pepperell. Rev. Joseph Cony MacDonald performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a hoop-skirted gown of lace over white satin, with a fitted bodice and long sleeves. Her finger tip veil fell from a halo of matching lace and she carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids, roses and sweet peas.

Mrs. Philip Pope of Princeton, New Jersey, the matron of honor, wore Nile green lace over pale green taffeta with a halo hat of pale green marquisette and peach velvet. Pink snapdragons, sweet peas and gypsophila were combined in her bouquet. The bridesmaids, Miss Alice French of Amherst and Miss Lillian McNay of Boston, wore peach marquisette over Nile green with hats of pale green marquisette and lace mitts. Their bouquets combined pink and orchid sweet peas, snapdragons and gypsophila.

Mr. Donald Thomas Black was best man for his brother. The ushers were Mr. Paul Dooe of Marshfield, Wisconsin and Mr. John Decker of Rhineland, New York.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Yount wore beige chiffon and lace over beige taffeta with a coronet of lace and chiffon in orchid and violet shades. Mrs. Black wore a gown of pale blue chiffon with a bodice and panels of Alencon lace in applique and a matching hat of blue lace. They both wore corsages of roses and sweet peas in shades to blend with their gowns.

The bride attended Dana Hall and Vassar College. Mr. Black was graduated from Phillips Exeter Academy and the University of Wisconsin. He is a member of Alpha Delta Phi. During the war he served for three years with the USAF, including duty overseas. Following a wedding trip to Canada Mr. and Mrs. Black will make their home in Madison, Wisconsin where he is attending the Graduate School of the University of Wisconsin.

"LIFE" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, July 17. GOLDEN TEXT: "This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent" (John 17:3). SERMON: Passages from the Bible (King James Version) include:

"No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body more than raiment?" (Matthew 6:24-25). Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include:

"If we follow the command of our Master, 'Take no thought for your life,' we shall never depend on bodily conditions, structure, or economy, but we shall be masters of the body, dictate its terms, and form and control it with Truth" (p. 228).

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin with a bodice of rosepoint lace. Her fingertip veil applied with roses was caught to a Juliet cap of lace and seed pearls. She carried a Colonial bouquet of white roses. Miss Ruth Kenison of Wellesley Hills was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Florence Berg of Hastings-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., Miss Louise Giardini of Boston, Miss Virginia Newton of Maplewood, N. J., and Miss Marcelle Ducaet of Stockbridge. All the attendants wore gowns of green taffeta with halo hats to match and carried Colonial bouquets of pink rosebuds and baby's breath. Sandra Borg of Sudbury was the flower girl.

Mr. Arthur MacRae of Somerville was the best man. The ushers were Mr. James K. MacPherson of Quincy, cousin of the bride, Mr. Ralph Gillis, Mr. Robert Nelson and Mr. Richard Gieser, all of Boston.

A duet "O Perfect Love" was sung by Miss Louise and Miss Flora Giardini, and the solos "The Pledge" and "I Love Thee" were sung by Miss Flora Giardini of Boston.

Following a wedding trip to Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Mr. and Mrs. Skinner will reside at 77 Columbus avenue, Waltham. The bride was graduated from Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill., and is a teacher in Sudbury, Mass. Mr. Skinner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert H. Funeral services for Franklin P. Davis, a retired employe of the Middlesex and Boston Street Railway Company, were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Wentworth Chapel, Waltham. Rev. Sidney Adams, pastor of the Centenary Methodist Church in Auburndale, officiated. Burial was in the Newton Cemetery with committal service by Mr. Adams.

Thomas P. Lyons

Funeral services for Thomas P. Lyons of 53 Eddy street, West Newton were held Tuesday morning from the Cate Chapel, West Newton. A requiem mass was celebrated in St. Bernard's Church at 10 o'clock by Rev. James J. Mohan, S.J., of Weston College.

Serving as pallbearers were James McMahon, Joseph McMahon, Robert Lyons, Thomas Lyons, James Lyons and Paul Fessenden, nephews of the deceased.

Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham with prayers by Rev. John A. Saunders.

Mr. Lyons died on Saturday following a long illness. He was born in Newton, the son of Peter and Catherine (McMahon) Lyons and for many years was associated with Prescott's Market in West Newton.

F. Chester Boyd

Funeral services for F. Chester Boyd, for several years a resident of West Newton, were held Tuesday morning from his home, 18 Pearl street, Waltham. A high mass of requiem was celebrated in St. Mary's Church by Rev. Joseph B. Corkery. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham, with prayers by Fr. Corkery.

Mr. Boyd died suddenly on Saturday, July 9, at his home. He was in his 52nd year and was a Navy veteran of World War I. He was born in Newton, the son of A. Henry and Mary (McGann) Boyd.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Florence (Healey) Boyd; three sons, Francis C. and Richard H., both of Newton and John E. Boyd of Waltham; two daughters, Mrs. Anthony Scaffidi and Miss Elizabeth A. Boyd of Waltham; two brothers, Harold of West Newton and Raymond of West Newton, and one sister, Mrs. Donald Magaw of Newtonville.

Lillian T. Wheelock

Funeral services for Mrs. Lillian T. Wheelock, formerly of West Newton, were held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 in the Bigelow Chapel, Mount Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge.

Mrs. Wheelock died on Sunday, July 10, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. Warren Shoemaker, in Winchester.

She was in her 89th year and was born in Frankfort, Maine. Her father the late Capt. Henry Treat, was a famous sea captain. Mrs. Wheelock was a member of the Second Congregational Church, West Newton.

Estelle M. Vuilleumier

Mrs. Estelle M. Vuilleumier, wife of the late Charles Vuilleumier, formerly of 21 Harding street, West Newton, died on Friday, July 8, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Hitchen in South Weare, New Hampshire.

Mrs. Vuilleumier was in her 87th year. She was born in Sonviller, Switzerland, the daughter of Jacob and Marie (Schultz) Henzi, and came to Newton in 1915 from Providence, Rhode Island.

Besides Mrs. Hitchen she leaves three other daughters, Miss Antoinette Vuilleumier of Vassalboro, Maine, Miss Charlotte Vuilleumier of Berryville, Virginia, and Mrs. Martha V. Rae of Vinalhaven, Maine; also two sons, Henri C. Vuilleumier of Weyland and George V. Vuilleumier, a lieutenant in the Newton Fire Department; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Wentworth Chapel, Waltham.

John H. Horrigan

Funeral services for John H. Horrigan of 102 Arlington Street, Newton, were held from his home on Monday morning. A solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated in St. Columbkille's Church, Brighton, at 10 o'clock. Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery, West Roxbury.

Mr. Horrigan, a nationally known authority on meat distribution, died on Friday, July 8, at his summer home in West Harwich. He was born in Brighton and in his youth was employed at the Brighton stock yards. He later became associated with Swift & Company and for several years served as manager of several of their branch houses, before opening an independent packing firm in Boston, known as Horrigan & Doe. In 1922 he retired from the wholesale business and became associated with his son in Horrigan's Market, Inc., of Brighton where he served as meat buyer.

He is survived by his son, Leo Horrigan of Newton, with whom he made his home, and one sister, Mother Superior Mary Elizabeth of St. Charles' Convent in Waltham.

Louise Torrey

Miss Louise Torrey, a resident of West Newton for 45 years, died on Saturday, July 9, in Lexington where for the past three years she made her home with her niece, Miss Helen F. Potter.

Miss Torrey was in her 93rd year. She was born in Boston and was a first cousin of Mrs. Louise Torrey Taft, mother of the late President William Howard Taft.

Private funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon. Interment was in the Newton Cemetery.

cost about $30,000. This is a very substantial amount but foundations below the water line are expensive.

Another difficulty with the project is that there is no park area beside the dam for the M.D.C. There are factory buildings on both banks. Normally there is a park or a parkway adjacent to the stream which the Commission uses for recreation or an historic monument. Notwithstanding these drawbacks, an exception has been made in this case and both branches have voted to authorize the acquisition and reconstruction of this dam.

Club Directory To Be Ready Sept. 1

The 1949-1950 edition of the Directory of Newton Agencies, Clubs and Organizations is now being prepared and will be ready about September 1st. This directory is published as a service to the community by the Newton Community Council. The contents include: Newton Community Chest member agencies with brief description of purpose, city government, city departments, school committee, public, parochial, private and special schools and colleges, P.T.A.'s, churches and church organizations, veterans' organizations, Newton Federated Women's Clubs, improvement associations, Red Cross service chairman and miscellaneous clubs, associations and organizations including service, fraternal, garden clubs, etc.

If there are organizations which are not now listed or known to the Council and would like to be in the Directory, they may do so by calling Mrs. Eugenia T. Cope, Executive Secretary, Newton Community Council, LAsell 7-5121.

The Council also maintains a calendar of meeting dates of various organizations to eliminate the possibility of two large groups planning for some activity on the same day. This calendar is published weekly in the local newspapers. There is no charge for either service.

This Information Service of your Community Council is for your convenience so please keep us informed as to any new organizations, changes in officers and meeting dates by calling LAsell 7-5121.

News from the State House

By: Helen L. Ring

On Tuesday afternoon before a joint session of the Legislature the most important piece of legislation was debated amid cheers, hisses and laughter—the proposal for a legislative amendment to the constitution to permit the levying of a graduated income tax by the General Court—was ordered to a third reading on a roll call—136-110—several members absent, one of whom was Rep. Margaret L. Spear of Newton, who has left for her summer home in Maine. The proposed changes in the constitution adopted by the Democratic State Convention. The Article of Amendment must be approved by the legislature before it can go on the ballot. After that it then must go before a joint session for approval before it becomes a law. This procedure will take several years. Rep. Louis Nathanson, Democrat, of Dorchester, offered an amendment to the proposal "to permit the levying of a different rate on various types of income." It was approved by a vote 134-116. The motion to reconsider his amendment was defeated on a roll call 120-133. Many amendments were offered and each one was defeated. Rep. Howard Whitmore, Jr., offered an amendment—"any exemption and deduction shall be uniform irrespective of the class or source of income taxed" was defeated on a roll call 123-129. Rep. Whitmore pleaded that his amendment be adopted because it would "treat every one equal."

Several representatives spoke against Nathanson's amendment saying that the whole tax system of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts is unfair and unjust, that a further tax on those who need the money would be dangerous. Others said that we should have a tax system as in Connecticut—a sales tax, and the whole matter should be thrown out of the window. After a hectic and boisterous session they adjourned at 7:15 p.m. to reconvene until a later date. Sergeant-at-Arms, Arthur Driscoll, piloted the Senate members out of the House Chamber, members of the House singing "I hate to see you go". The Speaker announced that the House will be in session at 8:30 p.m. for further business.

Auburdale

Carley Realty reports the sale of the attractive frame bungalow at 121 Day street, Auburdale, with five rooms, heated garage and approximately 7422 sq. ft. of land. Mrs. Edwin A. Brown conveyed to Dr. Elmer P. and Elizabeth B. Franscen.

At 8:40 p.m., the House of Representatives resumed their session to debate the H.2591—cash sickness benefit fund. It lasted until 12:30 p.m. The bill was defeated by 110-107 on a roll call. A motion for reconsideration was made by Rep. Murphy for a debate on Wednesday afternoon. This was passed on a roll call 115-111. The question came up again whether the bill should be rejected. On a rising vote the bill was not rejected. A roll call was asked and it was rejected by 115-112. There was a loud applause by the members. The galleries were crowded and the House Chamber was very warm. It was a relief to all that this bill will not be brought up again. In the debate it was stated that the cash sickness benefits are not a dole, that it will not be a burden on taxpayers and are not taking it away from the insurance companies. The opposition stated they were opposed to a State Fund, it was a socialistic idea and a racket.

A warning to the citizens of Newton not to go bathing or fishing in the waters at Weymouth, Quincy or along the shores around that vicinity. The pollution in those waters is dangerous. A bill to provide for the removal of offensive substances from the sewerage has been filed and passed in the House. It will be heard in the Senate today. Gov. Dever will sign the bill this week. The City of Boston will build a $12 million dollar sewerage plant to correct this pollution at an estimated cost to the taxpayers—40 cents per.

H.213—authorizing the MDC to acquire, restore and maintain the rolling dam on the Charles River at Bemis street in the City of Newton and Watertown was passed by the legislature. The bill is now before the Governor for signature. The estimated cost is $28,000.

The bill to reduce the eligibility age from 65 years to 60 years for old age assistance has been postponed until July 21st. Governor Dever's tax program will be heard in the House on Friday.

A bill authorizing the State Banking Dept. to investigate collection agencies and charge them a fee of $25.00 for each investigation has been passed.

House bill 2832 barring Communists from public employment was heard on Wednesday in the State Senate. Sen. John D. Mackay, Republican, of Quincy offered an amendment to delete the word communist from the measure. He warned that "no court of law recorded a judgment that the Communist party was guilty of advocating the overthrow of government by force." He also said that his sole purpose for his amendment was to save the face of the Massachusetts Senate and its reputation for clear thinking. The amendment was adopted by 20-13. As the bill now stands it does not specifically name communists.

Newton AVC To Hold Supper Saturday

"Here's the Pitch"

By "Bump" Hadley

WBZ, WBZ-TV Sportscenter and Former Major League Pitcher

I DON'T know whether you've noticed it or not, but Massachusetts boys are very much in demand as athletes. This is a happy hunting ground for college football and basketball scouts, and for major league baseball scouts. Early this month three of the prize athletic prospects in Massachusetts high schools turned up in remote corners of the nation. Joe Andrews, who was all-scholastic in football and baseball and a pretty fair basketball player to boot, will continue his quest for education at the University of Washington.

George Bullard of Lynn Classical High School, all-scholastic in football and baseball, has signed a contract with the Detroit Tigers. Don Wile of St. Charles of Waltham has signed a contract with the Chicago White Sox.

The Brooklyn Dodgers are holding a try-out camp at Crocker Field in Fitchburg. The St. Louis Cardinals are doing so at Worcester. The New York Yankees held such a try-out at Mansfield. And there are undoubtedly others which I've missed.

Of course, it's gratifying, in one way, to have our local athletes so highly regarded. It's a compliment to the boys themselves, and, even more so, it's a compliment to Massachusetts' coaches. Too often, Bay State high school sports coaches are under fire for not winning. But, it must be evident that the colleges and the professionals, who reach into this area for boys, believe that the coaches have done a good job.

Attend Graduation

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Fredey of North Miami Beach and Newton came to attend the graduation at Regis College of their granddaughter, Alice, and their grandsons, Richard B. and Eugene Ford, from Newton High School. All three are the children of Charles F. Fredey, Jr. of Waban.

In North Carolina they were the guests of their son, Marcel, who with his brother, Richard B., manages the Southern W. R. Berlinger chain of hotels.

Some of the most binding contracts are not written upon legal forms. There are heart to heart understandings that make formal agreements seem weak indeed, proving there is more value in honest sentiment than in treaties.

Why a Man Buys a Cadillac

If you were to ask the owner of a 1949 Cadillac why he bought his car, he would doubtless find it difficult to put into words the way he feels about "the Standard of the World".

He would probably tell you that he bought his car because it's a Cadillac.

Of course if you wanted to ask him specific questions, he could give you a great deal of specific information.

Did he buy his car for performance? Why, surely he bought it for performance—for the 1949 Cadillac is powered by a great new V-8 engine, so smooth and effortless that only a demonstration can tell the whole story of its superiority.

Did he buy it for comfort? Yes—for a ride so quiet and restful and easy that every mile is a joy and a relaxation.

Did he buy it for safety? He certainly did! He has such confidence in the steady steering, the quick acceleration and the powerful hydraulic brakes that his peace of mind is worth the purchase price!

Did he buy it for long life and durability? There can be no doubt of it. For he knows that many Cadillacs have rolled down the highways for more than half a million miles and are still in active service!

Did he buy it for...? Why, of course he did! And he bought it for a lot of other reasons: for beauty, for distinction, for quality, for background, for character, for craftsmanship, for engineering.

He bought it, you see, because it's a... Cadillac.

And that is the reason why you should buy one—for Cadillac's superiority lies not in any one thing but in the whole of its substance. Why not come in for a ride that's a revelation?

Anderson to Be Candidate-at-Large

Alderman Winfield C. Anderson, of 57 Elmhurst-road, Newton, today announced that he will be a candidate for Alderman-at-Large from Ward 7 at the November elections. Mr. Anderson is completing his first term as Ward Alderman.

At present, there is only one Alderman-at-Large from Ward 7, as the result of the resignation on Monday of Arnold C. Barker. The vacancy is to be filled at the next meeting of the board on August 15, when Alderman Anderson and Alderman-at-Large John C. Deale will present the name of their choice for the post for the approval of the full board.

Born in Wilmington, Delaware, Mr. Anderson came to Newton 27 years ago as president of the Cheney Paper Company. Since

Junior Wightman Girls Going Strong

Have you seen the Junior Wightman Cup girls? They're going strong around this vicinity, and chances are they're out practicing on your neighborhood court right this minute.

The Junior Wightmans were, of course, instigated by Mrs. Hazel Hotchkiss Wightman of Chestnut Hill, "Mother of American Lawn Tennis," and donor of The Wightman Cup in international competition for women. The idea behind the play is to stimulate ever-widening interest in junior-age tennis by holding friendly tournaments against neighboring towns.

Composed of girls 18 years and younger, the teams in the League represent Longwood, Malden, Belmont, Newton, Winchester, and Marblehead. Like the boys' Junior Davis Cup Teams, the Junior Wightman Cup girls get valuable tournament participation experience throughout the summer, playing six singles matches and one doubles weekly, and the most consistent winners are rewarded at the season's end with Wightman Cup Badges.

Each team has its own coach, a young woman player probably herself a J.W.C. trainee. Miss Jean Davis of Waban heads the Newton group, and once a week the practices individually with them. At the Waban Neighborhood Club, Newton beat Winchester this week, four matches to three. On the winning team are Barbara Park, Joanna Williams, Elsa Marston, Adelaide Gross, Ellen Kattwinkel, Marie Shay, Virginia Post, Lee Marston, Sally O'Neill, and Pat Dempsey.

Wellesley Theatre To Extend Season

Because of so many requests for a longer season at the Wellesley Summer Theatre, Eldon Winkler, Executive Director, announces that the season will be extended for an additional week and that Eva Le Gallienne has accepted an invitation to come to Wellesley to star in Emily Williams' beloved comedy, "The Corn Is Green." Miss Le Gallienne will bring with her a distinguished cast featuring Richard Waring who created the role of Morgan Evans opposite Ethel Barrymore in the original Broadway production. Miss Le Gallienne's performance will begin Tuesday, August 16, immediately following Sarah Churchill's appearance in "The Philadelphia Story" which runs Tuesday through Saturday, August 9 to 13.

Eva Le Gallienne, one of the foremost American actresses, was the co-founder of the American Repertory which opened in New York in 1946, along with Margaret Webster and Cheryl Crawford. She has received more honors than any other member of the theatrical profession.

Notable members in the supporting cast are: Dorthy Hinkley who recreates the role who played in the touring company production; Robin Craven who appeared with Sir Lawrence Olivier and Sir Ralph Richardson in a season of the Old Vic; Eva Leonard-Boyne, established English actress; and Barbara Welch who has starred with the Stanford Players in California.

The Answer To Excise Tax Repeal

Congressman Noah Mason of Illinois has come up with what we think is the logical answer to the problem of repeal of the wartime excise taxes, at the same time saving the federal government from a substantial loss of revenue at a time when a sizable federal deficit is in the offing.

Mr. Mason is author of a bill now before Congress that would levy federal income taxes on the corporate business incomes of co-operatives and four other types of tax-escaping commercial corporations. He now suggests that this be tied in with repeal of the wartime excises.

Taxing the untaxed would produce a billion dollars a year in new federal income, Congressman Mason estimates, while it is generally admitted that repeal of the unpopular excise taxes would cost the government about $500,000,000 in income. If, as Mr.

Men 18 to 26 Still Required to Register

Calling attention to the fact that failure to register is a violation of law and makes the delinquent liable to penalty, Colonel Chester A. Furbish, Massachusetts state director of Selective Service, today outlined registration requirements under the Selective Service Act of 1948, which he said he believed were not thoroughly understood by all of the general public.

"The obligation to register," Colonel Furbish said, "is a continuing obligation and must be fulfilled regardless of whether men are being inducted into the armed forces under the Selective Service Act. The obligation to register is imposed by the Act on every male, citizen or resident, in the United States between the ages of 18 and 26, with only the general exception of members of the armed forces on active duty and certain aliens."

The young man who becomes 18 is required to register at a local board office within five (5) days of the date of his 18th birthday. Colonel Furbish explained, but if he happens to be away from home he need not return; —REGISTER—

B. C. Entrance Exams September 1

Entrance and scholarship examinations for Boston College Intown will be held September 1, and entrance examinations for Boston College School of Nursing on August 30, according to announcements by Rev. John W. Ryan, S.J., and Rev. Anthony G. Carroll, S.J., respective heads of the two schools, located at 126 Newbury street, Boston. Applications for the Nursing School should be filed by August 15, and for the Intown College by August 22.

The Nursing School examinations will be for the five-year course leading to a degree of bachelor of science in nursing. This is designed for high school graduates, and combines a basic nursing course with collegiate academic studies. The Nursing School also offers a program for graduate nurses leading to degrees of bachelor of science in nursing education and public health nursing. The Intown College courses are open to high school graduates and lead to bachelor degrees in arts and sciences.

The increased tax on commercial banks will certainly raise the cost of banking services to all their customers, and they will pay the bill.

The whole bill is "soak the little fellow" legislation. The need of the hour is not increased taxes.

Gath Announces His Candidacy for Ward 2 Alderman

If the drought effected the flowers and crops in the Garden City there is no indication of a drying-up period in the Newton political acreage especially with the announcement this week by Harry Gath, Jr., 600 California street, Newtonville as a candidate for alderman from Ward 2.

Mr. Gath is an active worker from Ward 2 in the Newton Republican City Committee. He is a member of the executive committee of the newly organized Newton Republican Club of which Christian Herter, Jr. is president. Right now Mr. Gath is most interested in increasing the membership of the club. He is also enrolled in the Massachusetts State Guard. With his daughter Carol enrolled at the F. H. Day Junior High School, Mr. Gath is a most ardent endorser of the Parent-Teachers' Association.

Many of the members of the well known Gaths' Guards sports teams, such as baseball, basketball, football, bowling, softball and golf, covering the last 18 years of Mr. Gath's interest in sports well remember his service in the military units as a former sergeant in the 101st Infantry, Yankee Division as well as the 26th Infantry of the Massachusetts State Guard.

Mr. Gath has been a resident of Newton for 25 years and during most of that time has been a business and residential property owner. His activities in the promotion of various charity drives such as the Newton Community Chest, Newton-Wellesley hospital and Red Cross as well as the children's cancer research program through the "Jimmy Fund" are well known.

In announcing his candidacy Mr. Gath said, "In my 25 years as a resident of Ward 2 I have seen many changes in the business development of the area; the growth of the residential areas and especially the changes in political philosophy of the so-called Newton die-hards now bolstered by the more independent political beliefs of the newer generation, their own off-spring and that of the new-comers to Ward

Guard Units at Camp Edwards for Summer Training

More than 7000 members of the Massachusetts National Guard are currently at Camp Edwards, Cape Cod, for their annual fifteen days of summer field training. This is the third postwar camp for National Guard units.

The largest single unit of the Massachusetts National Guard, the famous 26th (YD) Division, uses more than 550 trucks and jeeps to make the movement to camp. With convoys converging on Camp Edwards from all parts of Massachusetts, Military Police units were stationed at strategic points to keep the traffic moving and to see that a minimum of disturbance was caused to the normal flow of vacation traffic.

Military planes with air-to-ground radio communication flew overhead throughout the day keeping the main roads under surveillance and notifying Military Police units of impending bottlenecks.

For the first time, the 26th Division has a non-military radio station of its own. Operating with the call letters WYDS, at 1550 on the dial, the station is under the direction of the Special Service Section and specializes in records, newscasts and information.

Lockwood Praised by Mayor's Association

Mayor Theodore R. Lockwood was named by the executive board of the Massachusetts Mayors' Association as "the Mayor who had rendered the most valuable service to the association during the past six months."

Commenting upon Mayor Lockwood's achievements concerning the association's members, Mayor James F. Reynolds, vice-president, said, "Mayor Lockwood's constructive and effective endeavors were directly responsible for obtaining $4,700,000 of accumulated tax collections, income and corporation, for distribution among the various cities and towns."

"At every meeting of the association, he wholeheartedly presented measures designed to aid in the solving of the problems confronting municipalities."

"His record of service to the Mayors' Association and to the citizens of Newton is a sequence of constructive action serving not only to make democracy an effective instrument to promote a better understanding between state and city governments, but also to enable our cities to meet their expanding responsibilities."

"Newton, under the direction of Mayor Lockwood, is an example of a well run municipality. With an increase of $282,000 in the school budget, $125,000 more expended on welfare and an added $235,000 to the 1949 budget over 1948 to meet the cost of 48 hour week for firemen, Mayor Lockwood is deserving of high praise for keeping the Newton tax rate at such a low level."

"January Thaw" To Be Presented At Cohasset Next Week

"January Thaw," a bright farce full of chuckles, will open at the South Shore Playhouse, Cohasset the week of July 25. Helen Bonfils, will make her initial bow there with Robert Ober another feature player. George Sommes will direct. The play was adapted by William Roos from Bellamy Partridge's novel of the same name. After a Boston opening the previous month, this Broadway hit was produced at the Golden Theatre, New York, February 5, 1946.

A lighthearted, refreshing piece for a July audience, "January Thaw" deals with the conflict between the Gages and the Rockwoods, which begins in June and

Answer—

Mason points out, the Congress would combine his bill to tax the profits of presently untaxed corporations with one of the several bills to repeal the excise taxes, the federal treasury would come up with about $400,000,000 in additional income without hurting anyone. Moreover, the plan would be a godsend to small business now forced both to compete with competitive tax-free enterprises and at the same time carry the business-depressing load of high wartime excise rates on such commodities as furs, jewelry, cosmetics, luggage, communication, transportation and a score of others.

The desirability of repeal of these excises is generally recognized by government officials, businessmen and the general public. The stickler has been the loss of revenue involved. Mr. Mason's suggestion not only does away with the danger of a revenue loss, but actually provides new, additional income for the treasury. Congress should give this earnest consideration at this time.

Dr. T. Stewart Hamilton, of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital, was introduced by Dr. Theodore Clark, and he spoke on the subject of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital Campaign and the use the funds would be put to.

Hospitals are listed with public health. Hospitals try to keep people healthy, and public health checks into restaurants, etc., to maintain health. The average person does not realize that the hospital maintains an out-patient department as well as an in-patient. Money spent on the out-patient department last year amounted to $100,000, which came from the Community Chest and from an endowment fund for that purpose. There are in the neighborhood of 1500 babies born in the Newton-Wellesley Hospital each year, and with the increase in population this will be greatly increased. Newton has one of the finest nursing schools in the country and draws from a fine class of girls from all over the country. The hospital is on call 24 hours a day and has to take care of any disaster. A fine example of the work done is that of the Waltham chemical disaster in which some 52 to 60 people were thrown upon the hospital without warning.

The building program is going along fine, and many improvements are planned. Oxygen, which is now being carried to the patient in tanks will be piped into the various rooms, also a suction device so that if needed it will be available. Another improvement is an amplifying system so that the patient need not press a buzzer or turn on a light, but the call will be answered from the desk so that the nurse will know immediately what is wanted, thus saving many steps and much time.

There is still in the vicinity of $500,000 needed, but there is a possibility that there will be a grant of $200,000 coming from Washington when the new bill is passed.

he may register at the nearest local board convenient to him and the record will be sent to the local board having jurisdiction, even though it is in another state. After he registers, it is mandatory that a registrant keep his local board informed of any change in his address or change in status, the director pointed out. This applies after he becomes 26 as well as before.

Questioned concerning the man who did not register during the designated registration days, August 30 to September 18, 1948, because he was then on active duty in the armed forces, Colonel Furbush explained that he is required to register within 30 days of the time he was separated from the armed forces.

"Any person who changes from a status which did not require his registration to a status which does require it, must register promptly to be within the law," Colonel Furbush said, adding that those who were out of the country on the registration days must register within five days following the date they re-enter the United States, which includes Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. Colonel Furbush said that non-citizens entering the United States for the first time are required to register at a local board within six months following the date of their entry. The maximum penalty for violation of any of the provisions of the Selective Service Act of 1948, Colonel Furbush pointed out, is five years in prison or a fine of $10,000 or both.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Taylor Jr., and their older daughter of 34 Brookside avenue were recent guests of Dr. J. Franklin Knotts and Mrs. Knotts at their summer home in New Hampshire.

The Newton Angler

Pollution Problem

During the past week, I met a Roslindale man who was fishing the Charles River at Dover. This man was 72 years old and had walked all the way from the end of the car line at Charles River bridge through to Charles River Village as he had no other way of getting to his favorite old spot where he had fished 60 years ago.

This was his first visit back to Charles River Village in over 20 years. During the past seven years since his retirement, he has fished only in local spots which he could readily walk to. In recent years, fishing at these spots has gradually become worse and it no longer was a pleasure for him to enjoy his fishing.

I spent a few hours with this man talking about the old favorite spots along the river and how many fish we used to creel back thirty or forty years ago. Yes, I fished those spots back in those days, and longer.

There are many anglers who have to do their fishing right handy for the same reason this man had, if they wanted to enjoy a day at this healthy pastime. This is also true of the youngsters in this area who have no transportation facilities to get them into areas where there is better fishing.

What is being done to bring back fishing in these local spots which in yesteryear were good fishing grounds?

Over-fishing has not been the real cause of our fast-dwindling fish population as most people believe. The real answer is pollution, and nothing is being done about it.

This spring, when the Wampatuck Rod and Gun Club inquired why Mother Brook had not been stocked as usual with trout, they were advised by the Division of Fisheries and Game that the waters were unsuitable for trout. In other words, these waters were polluted. There are still fish in these waters and quick action at this time in cleaning up pollution would save what is left of them.

Many states have already taken action and have reduced pollution in their streams and bays. A good example is the state of Rhode Island where they have cleaned up most of their streams and Narragansett Bay. The polio rate in the state of Rhode Island is the lowest per thousand of any state in the union and they had only six cases reported in the year 1948.

All states where they have taken up a program on reducing pollution in their waters have shown a marked decrease in polio cases. The state of Pennsylvania is now putting through the biggest anti-pollution program that has ever been attempted. This state, with the aid of the federal government, has started to clean up the most polluted river in the country, the Schuylkill river, a 138-mile project.

Why can't we have our representatives and senators do something before pollution gets too chronic here, not alone for the betterment of our wild life, but for the public health? Where will our next generation fish if we allow this pollution to continue?

We know what happened in the Neponset River; we know that Mother Brook is polluted and we know that unless we get action soon, what will happen to the Charles River; the only healthy body of water we have in this district is Muddy Pond in the Stony Brook Reservation.

Shooting Hours

Most of the wildlife agencies are recommending that the waterfowl shooting hours this year be changed back to 7 a.m. till 4 p.m. instead of the one-half hour before sunrise to one hour before sunset. This suggestion came about as the result of the large kill of ducks in the years that early-morning shooting was allowed.

In the 1947-48 season, the national kill was estimated at 12 million killed and three million crippled. The 1948-49 season brought back the early morning shooting privilege and the kill increased to 17 million and the cripples to three and one-half million. This increase in kill has been real high during every year that early shooting has been allowed.

Low Water

During the past week, most of the rivers and ponds reached the lowest water mark of the season and the waters got extremely warm, causing very poor surface fishing everywhere. Another local angler and the writer fished all along the Charles River at our favorite spots using live frogs as bait. We started fishing at daybreak and fished until eleven o'clock without a single strike.

We were ready to give it up as a poor day of fishing until we met a Roslindale man fishing from a boat under the railroad bridge at Charles River Village. He had just hooked onto three nice bass, the largest being a five-pounder. We learned that he had started the day surface fishing with no results and had changed to bottom fishing with chubs. He took all three bass using this method of fishing.

Later, we met two anglers fishing the bridge below the Walker Gordon farm and found both of these boys were also using chub, also bottom fishing. In fact, neither of these men were using a rod and reel, but were using nothing but a drop line, with a float with the bait at the bottom.

They had been fishing only a short time when we met them, but they had managed to hook three beautiful pickerel, all about 20 inches in length. We sure learned that the best method to land bass or pickerel with the low and warm water, is to get them low and on chubs, especially in the Charles River.

Important Bills

Two very important bills will come up for debate about July 21, which should be of vital importance to all sportsmen. The bill to increase the duck stamp from one dollar to two dollars has already passed the senate in Washington. This is Senate Bill 1076 and is being pushed very hard by two or three agencies.

The present bill, which has been changed many times since it was first introduced, now calls for ten percent of the amount collected, to be used for administration and enforcement expenses. The bill also contains an added amendment that clarifies the wildlife management issue to limit opening to 25 percent of newly acquired areas that have been fully developed, or in three years; but in no case, when bird populations are on the decline. The bill definitely states that this does not permit the opening of previously acquired sanctuaries.

The second bill is House Bill 1746. This would set up a federal aid for sport fishing restoration program patterned after the successful Pittman-Robertson game restoration program. It would divert the present 10 percent tax on sport fishing tackle from the general fund of the U.S. Treasury to finance this program. States would supply 25 percent and the Federal Government 75 percent of the cost of restoration projects which would remain under state control. No state shall receive less than one percent of the total apportioned to that state, nor more than five percent. To date, the P-R program has worked very well for the restoration of game, and the present bill, known as the Dingell bill, should do the same for the restoration of fish.

Salt Water Spotty

Salt water fishing along the coast is very spotty and almost nil at some points. With the vacation period now in full swing, all points are being heavily fished. Striper fishing has been very disappointing for most anglers to date. All along the North Shore, there has been very little action except for mackerel, which seem to be everywhere, but they are not in schools. Strippers are being seen everywhere, but few catches.

On the South Shore, conditions have been about the same. Early in the season, there was some action on bass at Duxbury, but this has slowed up, and there has been very little action on anything else. Nothing much stirring in Buzzards Bay during the past week and only five strippers were taken and these only on early morning tides. Fishing in the Weweeantle River has just been a waste of time during the past week and I doubt if there will be any action at this point again until September. At Long Nook and Nauset Beach, conditions were a little brighter on the surf but the catches are far off par for this time of year. A few strippers taken at Rock Beach, Provincetown but very slim pickings for the number of surf casters that are working the beach. Conditions will not change until we get that cold northeast wind we are looking for.

Geese Fly South

Many local people have advised that they have seen large flocks of geese flying in a southerly direction during the past week. These have been seen mostly in the early hours of the morning. This is unusual for this season of the year and I sure don't know the answer.

Fly Casting

A few of our local fly-casters have been enjoying some good fly-fishing at Dudley Pond in Wayland during the past week-end where they have been getting white perch on light tackle that weigh up to one and one-half to two pounds. If you want a lot of fun try this type of fishing.

New Sports Club

Sportsmen in the Randolph area are organizing a sportsmen's club and will become a member club of the Norfolk County League of Sports Clubs. Not so many years ago, many of the local sportsmen were members of the old Randolph club. This club, in years gone by, was very active on dogs, in addition to having their own trout stream.

Conservation Camp

The first class of boys who attended the first Massachusetts sportsmen junior conservation camp returned from camp this past weekend. This group was made up of boys selected from Norfolk, Middlesex, and Berkshire Counties. Another group of twenty boys reported to camp this weekend. This group was selected from Hampshire, Hampden, and Plymouth Counties and will remain in camp until the end of this month.

Social Security Facts

It is a fact—

That a claim must be filed before Old-Age and Survivors Insurance benefits can be paid. That a claims application for monthly benefits is retroactive for only three months from the month the application is filed.

That retired or unemployed wage earners who are 65 or over will not lose any monthly benefits if they visit or write to their local Social Security office promptly upon termination of their employment.

That a wage earner should visit his Social Security office when he reaches age 65 to learn about his benefit rights, even though he continues to work after age 65.

That the family of a deceased wage earner should notify their local Social Security office promptly of the death and thereby avoid loss of monthly benefits to widows and children.

Prompt action will prevent loss of benefits to retired wage earners or to the families of deceased wage earners.

For more information, contact your nearest Social Security office located at 90 Warren street, Roxbury 19, Mass.

ed taxation. Real economy in government, good housekeeping, in other words, is what we must have, and not these taxes. With this in mind, I have opposed this bill to the finish. So did my Newton colleagues, Rep. Whitmore and Whittemore. Our Republican minority held the line through all the roll calls, but we did not have the votes. George E. Rawson.

the increase in taxes. He was particularly interested in the "break-down" showing fire and wire contributed 8c to each dollar of tax rate. Do you know what he was told? Exactly this, "Don't you know the firemen got their 48 hour week which accounts for the increased taxes?" Only a few weeks ago I told the Newton "free thinking" citizens that the firemen's 48 hour work-week plan added ONLY slightly more than a halfpenny to the tax rate. Yet Mayor Lockwood's administration would have you believe, according to his chart, that 8c of the taxpayers' money was spent for the humanitarian act adopted by 15 other cities and towns in Massachusetts. He openly opposed the adoption of the 48 hour work-week for the firemen and eliminated them from his pay raise schedule for all other city employees. That is what my Boston business man and Newton taxpayer was interested in.

"Undoubtedly the mayor's chart is authentic because it must have been prepared by his new municipal research bureau which costs the Newton taxpayers a few pennies together with his own raise in salary.

"As a taxpayer in Newton I believe I have a right to know the full details regarding the allocation of these various monies spent. When I find them out I will certainly tell the industry and home owners where the chips fall. Like the Boston business man who asked questions I'll give ready answer."

Kay Francis in Summer Theatre Role This Week

The Boston Summer Theatre at air-conditioned New England Mutual Hall is presenting another distinguished star of stage screen and radio the week of July 15 through the Saturday evening of July 23 with a new production of Rachel Crothers famous and popular comedy "Let Us B. Gay" starring Kay Francis in the third attraction of this season.

Joel Ashley is featured in the production which will have two thirty matinee on Wednesday and Saturday and the large supporting casts includes such favorites from the resident company as Allan Tower, Nina Wentworth, Allen Nourse, Elizabeth Ayers and Constance Moorehead. Jerome Shaw has staged the comedy which has been designed by John Wulp. Reservations may be made at the box office of the theatre, Filene's, all ticket agencies and KE 6-2038. Mail orders may be sent to the box office of the theatre and will be filled in the order received. On the week of July 25 through July 30 the Boston Summer Theatre will present Sarah Churchill and Jeffrey Lynn in "The Philadelphia Story."

Civil Air Patrol

The first CAP sponsored Air Show attempted in the nation was given last Saturday and Sunday at the Bedford Airport. Unfortunately the weather was not disposed to give us the clear skies we have had for so many weeks, therefore it was impossible to accomplish all that had been planned; however, in spite of everything, the many thousands attending both days, were thrilled with the performances they saw. Due to the low ceiling, the jet planes from Dow Field and Mitchell Field did not come. However several unexpected arrivals at Bedford, including transatlantic planes, and Oldham National Guard plane taking aboard an iron lung for an emergency flight to Tulsa, and several Air Force evacuation planes landing to deplane patients for Murphy General Hospital in Waltham, gave the crowd plenty to see.

The CAP fliers gave many fine examples of precision flying and the appearance of nationally and otherwise known big names in aviation gave the crowd a show for its money. For example, Howard Dutton of Haverhill, nationally known stunt flier, landed a Cub-type aircraft atop a moving truck as it sped down the runway. He also amazed the crowd with a breath taking 1000-foot level routine of acrobatics.

Other daring flights were made by groups of pilots participating in balloon bursting stunts, Air Force Air Reserve, Navy and National Guard Units.

At a dinner, Saturday night the British boy prodigy Jimmy Osborne, played the piano and gave an exceptional performance. He has been made an honorary member of the CAP.

Many members of the Dorchester Squadron were present at the dinner including Lt. Thomas Marzilli, 580 LaGrange street, West Roxbury.

At a garden wedding at the home of Mrs. H. L. Hammond in West Newton Saturday afternoon, July 9, Miss Anne Cady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Torrey Cady of Waban, became the bride of Mr. Gordon Raymond Whitman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Corwin Whitman of San Francisco, California.

Rev. John Golding of the Church of the Redeemer, Chestnut Hill, performed the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. With her off-the-shoulder gown of white organdy in ballerina length, trimmed with white eyelet and a wide taffeta sash, she wore a wide brimmed picture hat of white organdy trimmed with French roses. Her colonial bouquet was of snapdragons and feverfew.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Judith Cady, as maid of honor, who wore a ballerina gown of white organdy with a wide sash of pink velvet and a pink and white picture hat of organdy. Her colonial bouquet was of pink roses and baby's breath. The flower girls, Miss Judy Hammond and Miss Wendy Nivling of Wellesley Hills, wore duplicates of the maid of honor's gown with the same accessories.

Lieut. Commander Kenneth Gordon Cady, brother of the bride, served as best man. The ushers were Mr. Bradford C. Leyland of Chestnut Hill, Chester E. Blackley Jr. of Wollaston, Edwin B. Cady of Wellesley, John A. Hammond and Owen C. Nivling of Wellesley Hills. Cyrus Conaway Cady of Wellesley, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer. The bride attended Edgewood Park, Briarcliff Manor, New York.

Vorys - Rogers

Regal lilies and white delphinium decorated the altar of the First Church, Chestnut Hill, Saturday afternoon, July 16, for the wedding of Miss Lucia Rogers, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Horatio Rogers of Newton Centre, who became the bride of Mr. Arthur Vorys, son of Mr. and Mrs. Webb I. Vorys of "Clifftop" in Blacklick, Ohio. Rev. Kenneth C. Gesner performed the 4:30 ceremony which was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore her grandmother's wedding gown of cream satin. Her tulle veil bordered with Brussels needlepoint d'Angleterre lace caught to a cap of the same lace and she carried ivory double snapdragon and stephanotis. She was attended by her sister, Miss Amelia A. Rogers, as maid of honor who wore a full skirted gown of yellow crinkle crepe with a bertha bound with yellow taffeta, and a hat of yellow horsehair. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Samuel S. Rogers of North Andover; Miss Margo Vorys of Blacklick, Ohio; Miss Jeanny E. Vorys of Columbus, Ohio; Miss Charlotte B. Richardson of Newton Centre; Miss Sarah Abbot of Andover and Mrs. Augustus Hemenway of Quebec, Canada, wore gowns of white crinkle crepe over slips of scarlet and yellow with green taffeta berthas, and white horsehair hats. Their bouquets were of begonia in shades from gold to scarlet.

The bride's mother wore a nile green lace with a matching hat of tulle. Mrs. Vorys wore a gown of gray lace and a navy hat trimmed with pink flowers.

Mr. John Vorys of Columbus, Ohio was the best man. The ushers were Dr. Edward H. Wilson of Boston; Mr. H. Thorpe Minister, Mr. Martin West Vorys, and Mr. William Glover Porter of Columbus, Ohio; Mr. Samuel S. Rogers of North Andover; Mr. Horatio Rogers of Newton Centre; Mr. E. Stuart Wilson, Jr., of Newtonville; and Mr. David Hibbs Donnan of New York City.

The bride was graduated from the Winsor School and from Bryn Mawr College. She is a former member of the Junior League. Mr. Vorys is a graduate of Columbus Academy of Williams College and of Ohio State University School of Law. He is a member of Chi Psi fraternity.

Rev. John U. Harris performed the ceremony at 4 o'clock and a reception followed at the home of the bride's parents.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace trimmed with satin. Her fingertip nylon veil was caught to imported orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis. The maid of honor, Miss Merrill Southey of Cranston, Rhode Island, wore white embroidered organdy over leaf green taffeta.

The bridesmaids were Miss Olivia Prouty, Mrs. Walter Brown of Boston, and Miss Barbara Flynn of Scarsdale, New York. They wore gowns of white embroidered organdy over leaf green taffeta. All the bridal attendants wore headbands of ivy and carried cascades of ivy with marguerites.

Mr. Frank M. Webber of Newton was the best man. The ushers included Mr. George C. Twombly of Portland, Maine, brother of the bride; Mr. Dana Seiler of Needham and Mr. Philip Seiler of Weston, brothers of the bridegroom.

The bride was graduated from the Kendall Hall School and from the Modern School of Fashion and Design. The bridegroom is a graduate of Kimball Union Academy and of Yale University with the class of 1949.

Following a wedding trip to Bermuda, Mr. and Mrs. Seiler will reside on Beacon street in Boston.

No Shopping I Would Go This Week

by Lee Tyler

Things are certainly tough all over. I've been sick, — and so are the merchants, only in a more mental than physical way. For business, it seems to be terrible. 8 percent more people are staying away from home this summer, making Newton at times look almost "cleared out." So even though the shops are open for business as usual, business is anything but rushing, and all the store owners mother talked to for me this week plaintively said, "We're economizing for now." I'll keep looking around, but there'll probably be no more personal shopping tours for a while... not until more reader-customer are around. In the meantime, won't you people at home and away keep in mind the shops I've already described for best buys and welcome visits? They are... in Newton Corner the Maple Leaf Dining Room, Newton Fruit Company, Tip Top Cleaners, Green's Stationery Store, the Ba-Bee Formula Service... in Newton Centre Driben for shoes, Hahn's Drug Store, Capriccio Company, Tarlowsky fashions... shopping by!

In Newtonville Jolly's Ice Cream, Albert's Beauty Studio, The Toy Chest... In Auburndale the Boulevard Pharmacy... In Waltham the South Side Market... In Newton Highlands the Simpson House and the Highland Pharmacy... In West Newton the What-Not Shop and Tomlinson Hardware... In Chestnut Hill Ralph Chamber's Tennis Shop and Tallino's.

And watch this column. When it picks up again, I promise you it'll be well worth shopping by!

Brighten That Corner

Coral rose walls and gray marbleized linoleum would be nice in the bathroom.

Boys' room and hall could also have gray linoleum; walls soft green; plaid draperies in red, yellow, green; bedspreads plain green; shag rugs and lamps red.

In the kitchen you might like blue linoleum; pale blue walls; white woodwork; knick-knacks yellow and red.

Please help me on a color scheme for my dining and living room. We want paper that's a little different than usual. Our woodwork is white; dining room is white and natural. Living room rug is mostly deep rose with some green, blue, tan. Dining room rug is almost a solid blue with just a touch of rose around the border. We just painted our kitchen blue so don't want to use that. Could we use the companion paper on one wall going upstairs? What color could I slipcover my davenport and two chairs? Furniture is mostly blond. I'm going to use white nylon ruffled curtains.

We have in mind a rose, gray, silver and white paper that would seem to be ideal with your carpet. It comes in three matching rooms, a medallion design for the dining room and a scenic which could be used on the stair wall. Because the colors are so soft, we don't think the three patterns would give the room a chopped-up look. Since there is quite a bit of green in your rug, you might choose plain gray-green with matching fringe for the davenport cover; a green and gray print for one chair and plain gray for the other

Speed Test for Greyhounds at Raynham Tonight

The third International Speed Test is down for settlement tonight but as of the present moment there's no question but that Russ Murray has finally come up with an import worthy of consideration. Hurry Ivan, the plucky Irishman from County Wexford, has gone far toward lifting the European greyhounds out of the slough of despond.

For some time the sports pages had been replete with stories regarding Hurry Ivan but they were merely stories. Once Hurry Ivan got on the track and took up the task of establishing his own position in the racing firmament there was no question. In his first start he was rather roughly handled on several occasions.

In fact at one point he was almost turned around on the track by the impact of another greyhound. But despite this blow and other little happenings he went on to win by a good neck over Joe Rawdon and Frank's Girl. That exhibition of gameness stamped him indelibly as the best greyhound that has thus far crossed the Atlantic to engage in match races in this country.

As the meeting progresses the distance the Irish greyhound will be called on to race will be increased. Most greyhound men think Hurry Ivan will have no trouble at the 5/16ths distance. They are not so sure about his ability to go the Raynham Course. However it is felt that by the time Raynham Course races are on he will be fit and ready for a tough race. This fellow can carry all his speed for 700 yards which is slightly more than the Raynham Course.

News from the State House

By HELEN L. RING

The Massachusetts Legislature's desire is to move rapidly towards prorogation. They are rushing through their work as is proven by the prompt and efficient and nonpartisan acceptance of the Metropolitan Transit Authority refinancing bill in the House of Representatives on Monday. Debating was limited, amendments were offered, no roll calls were taken. The bill exempts the MTA from paying about $1,300,000 in real estate taxes to 14 cities and towns and it is also designed to reduce MTA deficits by about $5,500,000. Under the present bill the MTA will continue to pay about $200,000 a year in gas and excise taxes to the state, and it will assume the responsibility for snow removal. The City of Newton loses $1122 on real estate taxes. In the short debate there was an inkling of a fare increase to prevent future deficits. The trustees are forced by law to ask for a fare increase when certain income is insufficient. This law is on the statute books at the present time. Both Democratic and Republican leaders refused to remove it from the statute books. Party caucuses were held before the debate took place on the floor. This helps the House to rush the bill through as smoothly as possible as there was a fear that the House would go into an all night session as it did on Thursday night on the tax bill. The House adjourned that night at 4:30 a.m. Sen. Chester Dolan, president of the State Senate, stated that he would not allow the Senate to repeat such a performance.

The cash sickness benefit fund bill to be taken over by the State will not be redrafted. Governor Dever will send a special message next week to the Legislature asking for a special recess commission to study this program. This state fund health insurance plan was recently rejected by the House by three votes.

A public hearing will be held before the Joint Committee on Labor and Industries at the State House on Monday, July 25, at 10:30 a.m. on a newly redrafted bill—the anti-injunction bill. This bill eliminates the secondary boycott and a clause which would have required an employer to obtain a certificate from the Commissioner of Labor and Industries to show "good faith" in trying to settle a labor dispute before seeking a court injunction. The bill would allow picketing where a strike is in progress.

Another public hearing of great importance to the public will be held on Monday, 10:30 a.m., July 25, in the State House before the Committee on Ways and Means is the tax program. This hearing is especially called for to consider the proposed taxes on billboards, federal mutual savings and loan associations and co-operative banks. This tax program was heard in the all-night session on Thursday in the House and it was passed to be engrossed. The speaker shouted that a public hearing was not held on the taxes. They argued that taxes designed to raise over $2 million would be taxes on "the little people." However, the tax bill was committed to the Committee on Ways and Means. The Democratic floor leader, Rep. Robert F. Murphy, Democrat, of Malden stated that it was fruitless to spend more time in public hearings.

A resolve providing for an investigation and study by a special unpaid commission of the laws of the Commonwealth of Mass. regarding the panel and reformatory institutions, paroles and deductions from maximum sentences was ordered to a third reading. This resolve was passed in the Senate on a voice vote. The Committee on Ways and Means has approved this resolve.

A resolve providing for an investigation and study by a special commission as to organization, administration, powers, duties, etc. in the Dept. of Conservation was engrossed. Rep. John S. Whittemore of Newton is a member of the Committee on Conservation.

The bill to increase teachers' pension from $750 a year to $1200 a year was approved by the House. This bill was rejected by the Committee on Ways and Means.

The bill reducing the age requirements for old age assistance from 65 years to 60 years was postponed until July 25th, Monday, in the House. The question is on ordering the bill to a third reading. Rep. Gibbons, Republican floor leader, moved that the bill be referred to the next annual session.

New Commanding Officer at Squantum

Impressive change-of-command ceremonies were held at the Squantum Naval Air Station Thursday morning, July 21, when Captain John P. Fitzsimmons, U.S.N., relieved Captain Otho P. Smoot, U.S.N., as commanding officer of the Naval Air Station.

During the 34 months Capt. Smoot has been commanding officer of the Naval Air Station he has been largely responsible for the growth of the Naval Air Reserve in New England, and establishing the Squantum Naval Air Station as the headquarters of the Naval Air Reserve in New England.

Captain Smoot, who was graduated from the Naval Academy with the Class of '26, has been ordered to duty as chief of staff to the commander of the Naval Operating Base, Bermuda, B.W.I. Captain Fitzsimmons, who relieved Captain Smoot, was born in Dixon, Ill., entered the Naval Academy as a midshipman in 1922 and received his commission as ensign, U.S.N., with the Class of 1926. He reported for flight training at Pensacola, Fla., in September, 1928, and was designated a naval aviator one year later. Since then he has been actively engaged in naval aviation serving aboard the aircraft carriers U.S.S. Saratoga, U.S.S. Wright, U.S.S. Mission Bay and the battleships U.S.S. West Virginia, and the U.S.S. Nevada. He was named commander, Tactical Air Control Group 1, Pacific Fleet, in November 1948, and was later ordered to the U. S. Naval Air Station at Squantum as commanding officer. He is married and has two sons.

Enroll Your Dog at Boarding School

You can be relieved of all worry about your dog while you are on vacation this summer if you enroll him in the summer boarding school of the American Dog Training Association, 194 Heath Street, Jamaica Plain, Mass.

Your dog will be boarded in Weston at the finest kennels in New England where he will be under a veterinarian's supervision. The training program does not allow him to become lonesome, for he only sleeps at the kennel.

In the morning, the Dog School Bus calls for the boarding dogs and brings them to the training center in Jamaica Plain for the day's work. The dogs are trained in basic obedience about 15 minutes of every hour and are returned to the kennels at night. This schedule makes an interesting routine for the dogs.

This boarding school is unique and is the only thing of its kind in the country. Its record of successfully trained dogs is unparalleled. Highlands 2-0560 or 0100. Bert Turnquist, Director.

Union Summer Services

The Rev. H. Daniel Hawver, D.D., will be the preacher at the Union summer service of the Newton Centre Protestant churches, held in the Methodist Church, Sunday, July 24, at 11 o'clock. Dr. Hawver will preach on the subject, "Overcoming This Sense of Futility." Mrs. Clendenning Smith will be the guest organist.

Over 100,000 Video Sets in The Boston Area

The Greater Boston area has topped the 100,000 mark in television set ownership for the first time, according to the most recent joint survey of leading distributors conducted by WNAC-TV and WBZ-TV.

The latest figures which include the month of June, place home installations of video sets at 100,428, while 4,683 sets are located in public places. This gives a total of 105,111 sets installed in Eastern Massachusetts, southern parts of New Hampshire and Maine.

The new figures, which do not include the Providence area, show an increase of 10,000 sets over the survey released by WNAC-TV and WBZ-TV a month ago. The estimate on the total television set distribution in the Providence region is 11,748 sets.

Richard Arlen to Be at Wellesley

Richard Arlen, handsome, famous screen star, makes his second appearance at the Wellesley Summer Theatre in a return engagement July 26 to star in Hagar Wilde's recent Broadway comedy hit Made in Heaven. Featured with Mr. Arlen is Patricia White, lovely talented motion picture and television star who is also returning to Wellesley for her second season. Frank Sanderford, young Texan actor returning to Wellesley after a winter of television in New York, is featured in the part of Phillip with Johanna Douglas as Elsa; Douglas Rutherford as Lasylo and Fay Roope as Harry.

Richard Arlen, one of motion pictures most popular actors, is also one of America's No. 1 citizens. Just recently he has been elected mayor of his home town at Sherman Oaks, California just outside the motion picture capital, Mr. Arlen starred in State of the Union at Wellesley in 1947 and was one of the most talked about favorites of the Wellesley Summer Theatre's first two seasons.

The production of Made in Heaven is staged by Leo S. Lavender of the Universities of Puerto Rico and Tulane and is designed by Charles E. Rogers, resident designer.

Senator Cutler Opposes Bank Levy

In a strongly worded statement this week Senator Leslie B. Cutler declared that she is opposed to the increased levy on savings banks and that she will vote against that section of the tax program as passed last week by the House.

"I have received a great many letters from constituents in opposition to this tax, and as far as possible I have replied to all of them."

"For well over 100 years now the mutual savings banks have promoted thrift in this state. Savings deposits represent the sacrifices of wage-earners who have carefully put aside a few dollars in order to have a reserve against future need."

"These accounts are small, since their size is limited by law. Many of them are set aside for children, while others constitute church funds and other trust accounts."

"I therefore assure the people of this district that I shall raise my voice strongly when this issue comes before the Senate," the local senator affirmed.

NEW MEDICAL CENTER LEADER

Frederick Ayer, Jr., 33, of Hamilton, Mass., former chief of FBI liaison units in ETO during the war, has been named to succeed Richard S. Robie of Melrose as general chairman of the $11,500,000 Children's Medical Center fund drive. Ayer, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Ayer, Sr. of Ledyard Farms, Wenham, and the nephew of the late Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., is believed to be the youngest general chairman in Bay State charitable campaign history.

Try These Suggestions Which Can Be Prepared Before-hand

By DOROTHY JAMES

Some time this summer you will almost certainly be planning a picnic.

What's that? You say you made a mid-summer resolution last year that you never would do it again.

Well, if you're like most of us you'll yield to the pleas of the small fry long before the cool September nights are with us again, and you will find yourself packing another picnic lunch. If the truth were known, those picnics are almost as much fun for the grownups as they are for the youngsters.

Maybe, Junior does turn the sandwich basket upside down, and what you thought was the salt turns out to be the pepper. But when you look back on it wasn't it fun after all?

For those householders who will be planning a picnic before the summer's end, may we offer a few suggestions which may be prepared the day before:

BANANA MEAT LOAF
1 pound ground raw beef
1 tablespoon ground chopped onion
1 tablespoon salt
1 teaspoon pepper
1 cup soft bread crumbs
1/4 cup mashed bananas (1 to 2 bananas)
1/2 teaspoon dry mustard (use all yellow or slightly green-tipped bananas)

Mix together meat, onion, salt, pepper and crumbs. Combine bananas and mustard. Add to meat mixture and mix well. Form mixture into loaf and place into well-greased baking pan (8 1/2 x 4 1/2 x 3 inches). Bake in moderate oven 350 deg. about one hour, or until loaf is done. Four to six servings.

This loaf is just as delicious cold as it is hot.

MEXICAN SALAD
1 cup medium oven baked red

kidney beans
1/2 cup cooked peas
1 cup diced celery
mayonnaise
1 cup diced cold cooked meat (ham, veal, pork or canned meat)
1 tablespoon chopped onion
1/2 tablespoon salt
Drain beans and peas; rinse sauce from beans. Marinate beans, peas and celery in French dressing for one-half hour. Add meat, onion and salt; moisten with mayonnaise. Serve in lettuce cups.

Col. William Fox Named N. E. 'Sally' Provincial Comdr.

Colonel William H. Fox, Salvation Army officer who has devoted many years of his life to directing youth activities, is the newly-appointed Provincial Commander of the organization in New England.

Boston and New England will not be an entirely new scene of endeavor and service for Colonel Fox because more than 20 years ago, from 1927-1929, he served as Provincial Young People's Secretary here. In this capacity he was in charge of all youth activities for the six-state area.

Marchant Named Acting Asst. Chief

Chief John E. Corcoran, with the approval of Mayor Theodore R. Lockwood, promoted Captain John R. Marchant, of Engine 4 station, to the position of Acting Assistant Chief in the Newton Fire Department. He will assume the duties of the present assistant chiefs when they are on vacations, sick, injured or other leave of absence.

Captain Marchant was appointed to the department on April 5, 1920 and was promoted to Lieutenant on January 1, 1936 and to Captain on June 3, 1945. He served at Engine 4 station during his entire period of service. A veteran of World War I he was first on the eligible list for the appointment to the position he now holds.

Announces Opening Of New Office

Doctor James Newman, O.D. of Newtonville, has announced that his new office of optometry at 302 Walnut street, Newtonville will be open every evening from 5 to 7:30 and Saturdays from 9 to 5 for the convenience of the public.

Dr. Newman, who served in Europe with the United States Army, was recently appointed Civilian Examining Optometrist of Murphy General Hospital at Fort Devens.

Appointments for optical examination can be made by telephoning DEcatur 2-9731 at any hour of the day.

Janse Pioneers For Civic Betterment

Pioneering for civic betterment in Newton with the same fortitude, courage and will to win as the 49ers are described in the history text-books in the Newton schools, John A. Janse, candidate for Mayor of the Garden City met a most enthusiastic group of "Janse 49s" Tuesday night when he "called the turn" on Mayor Theodore R. Lockwood regarding the "false alarm" he "rang in" about one of the most efficient city departments, namely, the firemen.

The ready acceptance of Mr. Janse's candidacy throughout the seven wards of the city was well indicated by the signatures on his nomination papers which will be filed with City Clerk Frank Grant in September. Mr. Janse's staff of workers have been busy recognizing these definite assurances of support in the November election.

During his "fireside chat" to his own "Janse 49ers" group Mr. Janse paid high tribute to Assistant Fire Chief William C. Fanning for his ability within the fire department and particularly to his interest in the pension plan of ALL city workers, fire, police, and others who in his handling of the Newton Contributory Pension Plan has been most successful until as Mr. Janse announced, "He has been given the 'by-pass' by Mayor Lockwood in favor of Comptroller Martin."

Continuing Mr. Janse said, "This is all in spite of the fact that a so-called efficiency expert on pensions by the names of Buck—no relation to 'Bring 'Em Back Alive'—worked on the Newton pension system while Mayor Lockwood should have been familiar with his costs and findings gave hearty congratulations to Assistant Chief Fanning."

Saint Ignatius of Loyola Church to Be Dedicated

One year from the laying of the cornerstone on July 31, 1948, the new Church of Saint Ignatius of Loyola at Lake Street and Commonwealth Avenue, Chestnut Hill, will be dedicated by His Excellency, Most Reverend Richard J. Cushing, D.D., Archbishop of Boston, Sunday, the Feast of Saint Ignatius of Loyola.

The church, a striking example of Modern Gothic architecture has a magnificent setting of ancient trees with the Parkway and the Reservoir as a background. The architect has endeavored to capture as much as possible the religious atmosphere of the early Gothic work, and to do this in such a short space of time and to create something worthwhile required serious study and much hard work. Considering this and the excellent quality of the materials and workmanship, it is a rather remarkable performance for both the architect and the builder.

The church is practically complete in all its details including all the stained glass windows. Those in the upper church depicting the history of the Jesuit Order are beautifully executed in design and color. The woodwork in the upper

City Hall Employees Being Screened for Heart Disease

The Newton Health Department this week began screening City Hall employees for heart disease. Dr. Ernest M. Morris, Director of Public Health, announced this week.

Through the City Hall screening program, the Health Department will attempt to learn the effectiveness of examining large numbers of people in order to find individuals with possible heart conditions.

The project, located in City Hall, will continue through the 5th of August. By that time it is expected that a sufficient number will have been screened to allow analysis of the results.

As a pilot study of the Newton Heart Demonstration Program, screening of City Hall employees is endorsed by the Newton-Wellesley Hospital staff. The project was planned by the Cardiac Program Committee of Newton-Wellesley Hospital, medical advisory committee to the Health Department's Heart Demonstration Program. It consists of three simple procedures designed to pick up a maximum of suspected heart conditions: a brief medical history, blood pressure recording, and stethoscopic examination of the heart.

Examination is by full-time public health physicians presently serving on the staff of the Health Department's Heart Demonstration Unit. There is no cost to City Hall employees cooperating in the study.

"As a means of working towards the prevention and control of heart disease in this community, physicians are interested in the possibilities presented by screening for heart disease," Dr. Egon E. Kattwinkel, chairman of the Cardiac Program Committee, declared. "Suspected cases of potential or actual heart disease will be guided to their physicians for diagnosis and treatment. Medical men are convinced that some forms of heart disease can be prevented if conditions known to cause them are discovered early enough. There is also evidence that some forms of heart disease can be successfully controlled if treatment is started early," Dr. Kattwinkel said.

The Newton Heart Demonstration Program is sponsored cooperatively by the Newton Health Department, the Massachusetts Department of Public Health and the Public Health Service. Endorsed in principle by the Massachusetts Medical Society and the Newton Medical Club, the objective is to learn what a community can do to help reduce sickness, disability and deaths due to heart disease. The program was initiated in May, 1948. Since that time physicians of Newton have worked together with public health authorities to develop a program aimed at meeting these objectives. Among the activities already undertaken are a refresher course for physicians, "The Newton Postgraduate Heart Institute," and courses in "The Public Health Aspects of Heart Disease" given for professional health and welfare workers of the community.

Paul Lukas at Wellesley Theatre

Paul Lukas, famous Broadway and Hollywood actor makes his first appearance at The Wellesley Summer Theatre August 2 in the riotous comedy of love Accent On Youth. Mr. Lukas, born in Hungary and discovered by the Comedy Theatre in Budapest, has acted in plays of Shaw, Chekhov and Pirandello, displaying the superior ability which has brought him world fame. He will star as Steven in Accent On Youth.

Featured with Mr. Lukas as Linda is lovely Patricia White, young talented motion picture star who returns to Wellesley for her second season after a winter starring in New York television. Immediately following her appearance at Wellesley in the Sarah Churchill production, she will start work on the new RKO film, Pursuit in New York. Leading supporting players include Johanna Douglas as Genevieve, Frank Sanderford as Dickie, Fay Roope as Galloway, and Douglas Rutherford as Fogdell.

The production staged by Dorothy McLaughlin and designed by Charles E. Rogers will run Tuesday through Saturday, August 2nd to the 6th. Sarah Churchill and Jeffery Lynn in the Philadelphia Story follow the week of August 9th.

Robert Curley Wins Tech Scholarships

Robert M. Curley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Curley of 71 West Pine street, Auburndale, has been awarded two scholarships by the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The George H. May scholarships, established by a bequest from George H. May of the Class of 1892, are granted annually to graduates of the Newton high school who have been recommended by the Superintendent. Curley is also the recipient of a Freshman Competitive scholarship. Candidates for these scholarships are selected by competition from several hundred applicants from all parts of the country.

Curley received his preparatory education at the Newton high school and will enter Technology this fall.

Water Safety Demonstration To Be Held Sunday

A Water Safety demonstration is being planned for Sunday at Crystal Lake according to Mr. Frank Dowsett, Water Safety Chairman, when parents as well as children can have a chance to see just what "is being accomplished in Red Cross Water Safety classes. These classes began at July 7th and will continue on into August. Specially trained instructors as well as free transportation are furnished by Red Cross. More than 1500 children are participating in the program which is under the direction of Miss Claire McCarthy assisted by Miss Eleanor Leahy, Miss

Virginia Murphy, Miss Kathleen Maguire, and Miss Margaret Lane. ## Selected List of Music Records are Announced

The Newton Free Library has just issued a selected list of its music record albums. This list is available for free distribution at the Main and branch libraries. In addition to these some one hundred albums which are largely the music classics the library has a collection of single records as well.

With the assistance of the Jewett Art Fund the library has built up an extensive book collection of music and books about music. In the last few years, the music record collection has been bought from the income of the Jewett Art Fund with some assistance from other funds. Many are glad to supplement their personal record collection by borrowing records from the Newton Free Library.

In the first half of 1949 over three thousand records were borrowed from the Newton Free Library, as many as were borrowed in the entire year 1948. The library has purchased some of the long playing records and expects to add more. A number of public libraries now have music record collections, Boston, Springfield and Quincy having especially fine collections.

The rearrangement of library services which was made early in 1949 has made the art and music material available from nine in the morning until nine at night, at the Main Library, 414 Centre street. Musical records are borrowed from and returned to the Main Library.

Gath Puts Stress On Need of Pools

At a meeting of his committee at his home, 600 California street, Newtonville, last night, Harry Gath Jr., candidate for alderman from Ward 2 again laid stress on the need of the building of a swimming and wading pool at the Albemarle playground, not alone for the benefit of the youngsters and adults of Ward 2 but for the entire city.

Quahog Chowder is Tasty Delicacy

Clam's Big Brother Piece de Resistance With Many Men

By DOROTHY JAMES

If you spend any part of this summer on Cape Cod the chances are that you will be called upon to make a quahog chowder.

Your men folk will come home one day with the quahogs they have taken from the flats at low tide, and they will expect to have them as the piece de resistance of their evening or noonday meal.

In case you have never been initiated to the tasty delicacy of quahog chowder, may we explain that the quahog is big brother in the clam family.

Quahogs abound in some sections of the Cape. But it is likely that your responsibility will merely be cooking, not digging them.

Let us stress at the beginning that the full-sized quahogs are suitable only for chowder. The small ones are tasty steamed, but regulations in the various Cape Cod counties forbid taking them at that size.

First the quahogs should be thoroughly cleaned, and you may quote us to the gentleman of the family as insisting that is a job that should be performed by them.

Then the quahogs should be steamed. After they have been steamed and their shells have begun to open, they should be removed and allowed to cool slightly.

When they have cooled enough so that they may be handled the quahogs are removed from their shell and either chopped or ground into small pieces. Grinding is easier and quicker.

Incidentally, if you do not intend to use the quahogs on the same day they are taken from the ocean, place them in the refrigerator until you are ready to use them.

There are several different ways of making quahog chowder, but the recipe we like most is this one:

QUAHOG CHOWDER
4 cups quahogs
1 onion (chopped)
2 celery stalks (chopped)
3 potatoes pared (chopped)
8 cups milk
1/4 pound salt pork (sliced fine)
2 cups heavy cream
salt and pepper to flavor.

Put the quahogs through a coarse grinder. Add onion, celery and potato cut up in fine pieces. Cook over low flame until tender. Add fried scraps of salt pork. Scald the milk and blend all together. Add the heavy cream and seasonings. Serve piping hot.

ALL-BRAN DATE BARS
3 eggs
1 1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 cup chopped dates
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup All-Bran
1 cup chopped nut meats

Beat eggs; add sugar, and beat until light and fluffy. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together; add to the first mixture with remaining ingredients, and mix

Versatile Fully Cooked Ham

VERSATILE FULLY COOKED ready-to-eat ham is the answer to effortless warm weather dining. With the ham already cooked, all you need do is slice and serve alone, or in combination with summer garden vegetables and delightful cool salads. How easy to have nourishing and taste-tempting meals throughout the warm summer! Use the well-known brand as a guide in purchasing top quality ham, and always be certain to check, both the wrapper and the ham itself, to see that it bears the Fully-Cooked-Ready-to-Eat label. For a warm weather luncheon platter suggestion serve rosy-hued ham slices with chilled hearty potato salad. Garnish the tempting ham platter with wedges of hard-cooked eggs with a gay pimiento strip topping for a taste treat that's hard to beat!

well. Spread batter 1/2 inch thick in greased, shallow baking pan. Bake in moderate oven, 375 for 20 to 30 minutes. While warm, cut into bars. Roll each piece in powdered sugar or serve as a pudding with whipped cream.

Don't discard potato chip crumbs in the bottom of the package—crush with a rolling pin and use for topping casseroles or coating croquettes.

A time-saving method for shaping hamburgers: flatten the meat with the palm of your hand, then cut with a cookie cutter.

Household Hints

The tile floor in our bathroom never looks clean. Is there anything special I can use on it? Mrs. V. K.

It isn't easy to keep unglazed tile looking new, but instead of plain soap, use 1-4 pound trisodium phosphate in 1-2 gallon of water. Use with steel wool if necessary.

Could you advise us how to get rid of flying ants that appear every morning on our basement walls and floor? They seem to come right out of the cement blocks. The basement is not damp. We have used many sprays but they give only temporary help. Every morning it's the same thing.

Mrs. P. W.
First bottle up a few of the ants and ship them to an Experimental Station for identification—they may be cement ants. While you're waiting for an answer, spray thoroughly with insecticide containing chlordane. This is rather new, quite deadly and will leave a residue that will be effective for a week or so.

Spray two or three nights in succession, close up the basement tightly. If necessary, continue the spraying. If this chemical is as effective as it is claimed, it should make quick work of the ants.

Incidentally, the wings indicate only that the ants are swarms, not any particular breed. The swarming season should be over soon.

Is it safe to use food from cans that have been damaged? Mrs. J. H.

If the can is dented from rough treatment, chances are the food is all right. However, when a can bulges at the top or bottom, toss it out quickly. The food in it is definitely spoiled and potential poison.

Can tar be removed from a rosy rug? Mrs. B. F.

Usually, just by covering the spots with heavy brown wrapping paper and pressing with a hot iron. Change the paper as the tar melts and adheres to it.

I would like to clean some rugs and wonder if you can tell me what to use for sizing. Is it wheat paste? Mrs. M. C.

No, it's animal glue. Boil it in an equal amount of water until dissolved. Cool; apply with a paint brush. Animal glue is available at the larger hardware stores.

Health for All

False Notions About TB
Some people stubbornly cling to false notions, even after they have been proved wrong. False notions about inconsequential matters seldom get us into serious trouble. But subscribing to false notions or superstitions about things like health and disease can and frequently does cause a great deal of harm.

For example, the facts about tuberculosis, a disease which kills nearly 50,000 Americans annually, are too often misunderstood. In this "enlightened" twentieth century, it is amazing how many people hold fast to misconceptions concerning tuberculosis which were disproved decades ago.

One false notion that still seems to persist about tuberculosis is that the disease is inherited. No one inherits tuberculosis. The disease is caused by a germ, the tubercle bacillus, which is transmitted from a person with active disease to another.

Tuberculosis sometimes seems to strike several members of one family. But this is usually because one member of the family contracts tuberculosis, and in the close association of family life, the tubercle bacillus germs are spread to other members of the household.

Some people still insist that tuberculosis must be accompanied by a hacking cough, emaciation and the spitting of blood. Actually, tuberculosis can be present in an early stage without any of these symptoms. That is why doctors advise regular physical examinations, including chest X-Rays. Then if a person does get tuberculosis, he has a better chance of finding it in an early stage, and can take measures against it at a time when it is easiest to cure.

There are still some who believe a certain type of climate is necessary to cure tuberculosis. As a matter of fact, tuberculosis can be cured in any climate. The basic factors involved in arresting tuberculosis are complete and proper rest under medical supervision, which is usually best obtained in a sanatorium. There are sanatoriums in every state and it is usually better for a tuberculosis patient to seek treatment in a sanatorium near his home than needlessly to travel great distances for it.

There are some "ho think that anyone over forty is safe from the disease. Although tuberculosis leads the causes of deaths from diseases among young people between 15 and 34, it strikes all age groups, as it does people of varying economic status, and differing environment and all types of physical description.

Those who make it their business to learn the truth about tuberculosis have taken a wise step toward protecting themselves against the disease. Correct information on the disease can be obtained from the local health department or from the tuberculosis association in the community.

Big Drop Last Week in Benefits For Unemployed

"The largest drop in claims for unemployment benefits in any week since last April was recorded during the week ending July 23 when a decrease of 5,073 claims was noted by the Division of Employment Security, Antonio England, Director, announced today.

"This substantial drop in benefit claims was the result of a decrease of 2,757 in the number of initial claims from the previous week and a decrease of 2,316 in continued claims from the previous week," Mr. England noted.

"The largest reduction in claims occurred in the continued claims for unemployment compensation benefits under the state law where a drop of 3,024 was noted.

"Last week the total claim figure amounted to 191,692 as compared with the previous week of 196,765. The peak unemployment benefit load occurred during the week ending June 11 when 198,514 claims were filed," England pointed out, or 6,822 more than during the week ending July 23.

"During the past few weeks there has been a gratifying improvement noted in employment conditions in both the textile and shoe industries which have contributed greatly to the unemployment situation in this state in the past months, and the forecasts from trade sources indicate that this condition will probably continue," Mr. England stated.

Manufacturing industries, particularly in summer resort trade, construction, and similar lines are at seasonal peaks at the present time.

During the week ending July 23 the Division of Employment Security paid out $3,065,939 in unemployment compensation bene-

Claims For Unemployment Benefits Up

"Claims for unemployment benefits in Massachusetts showed a slight increase last week amounting to seven hundred sixty-two," Antonio England, Director of the Division of Employment Security, reported today.

While the total number of claims recorded last week showed a slight rise over the previous week there was a decrease of eight hundred sixty claims for unemployment compensation benefits under the Massachusetts Employment Security Law, but an increase of one thousand six hundred twenty-two readjustment allowance claims filed by veterans under the G. I. Bill, England stated.

Last week's claims amounted to 197,617. Of this number 171,314 were filed under the State law providing for unemployment compensation benefits to those out of work, and 26,303 were filed under the G. I. Bill by unemployed veterans.

"The total of 197,617 claims for the week ending June 25 is some 900 under the record-high of two weeks ago," Mr. England pointed out. "It is important to note that the number of new claims being filed in the past few weeks has been showing some decrease. Furthermore, the increase in veterans claims is not too alarming when we realize that many of the veterans who have been going to schools and colleges are finding it difficult to obtain jobs this summer."

During last week the Division of Employment Security paid out $2,872,104 in unemployment compensation benefits under the State law. Another $430,213 was paid to veterans under the G. I. Bill. The balance in the State Unemployment Compensation Fund on June 17 was $148,314,671.

Favors State Bill to Buy South Station

Civic and business organizations this week called upon the State Legislature to take immediate action to prevent abandonment of the South Station.

The General Court is now considering a bill which provides for purchase of the Station by the Commonwealth without cost to the taxpayer. Under this measure, the State would pay $9,000,000 for the structure but would be paid back over a period of years in rents from railroads using the Station. A major provision of the bill also guarantees continuance of service to thousands of commuters on the Old Colony Railroad.

E. C. Johnson, president of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, warned that the Boston Terminal Company, now operating the Station, is bankrupt and that the station cannot continue under its present financial set-up. He said: "Public interest calls for a prompt and fair solution of the problem for the continuance of this vital unit of our transportation system. Any alternative resulting in its discontinuance would be a tragic backward step."

"The matter involves the welfare and convenience of hundreds of thousands of people, not only in Metropolitan Boston but throughout the Commonwealth. It affects nearly every phase of economic and social life in the largest city of Massachusetts and New England. It affects people using the New Haven road and particularly those using the Old Colony. It affects thousands using the Boston and Albany. It affects a vast total of real estate values for, over the years, a great many people have purchased property in the downtown area, relying on the continuance of this terminal station. It affects street traffic, housing, taxes, trade, employment, and mass transportation, much of which is keyed on the South Station."

H. D. Hodgkinson, president of the Retail Trade Board of Boston, said: "The abandonment of the South Station would seriously affect the convenience of hundreds of thousands and would cripple downtown business."

Janse-

as knowing MORE about the operation of the Massachusetts system of pensions than he (Buck) did."

As chairman of the meeting and director of the "Janse 48ers" W. Edward Wilson "sounded off" at the group meeting with a progress report for Mr. Janse's candidacy in all sections of the city.

Armed with his facts which he expressed it, "All free-thinking citizens of Newton should know," Mr. Janse opened with the citation of a specific case that applies to firemen but in general applies to ALL city workers in Newton whom Mr. Fanning represents.

Mr. Janse said, "It definitely is my purpose during this campaign to stick to the facts not talking for political purposes in generalities. Let us take Mr. Fanning's own agitation for the improvement of the pension plan for ALL city workers. To be specific with a supposition case of a fireman. Under the existing plan with a fireman having joined the department under the adoption of the two-plant system, in which year incidentally with its adoption, Newton taxes were reduced $120, that same man upon reaching the age of 65 would receive approximately $14 a week for a pension. Yet, that same man has contributed 3% of his salary to the pension fund. About two years ago I am reliably informed, Mr. Fanning representing ALL Newton city workers allowed that if the city of Newton would accept the Massachusetts state law it would be most beneficial. However, the so-called high financial status of the city was accepted as 'tops,' and the plan was not accepted. To-day under the present administration Mr. Fanning is fighting for a 'lost cause' of two years back when Mayor Lockwood was a member of the city government."

"Now I would like to ask Mayor Lockwood a question. It seems useless because I have asked him so many in the past few weeks and he has not answered them. Last Thursday didn't you ask for a committee of firemen to meet you at city hall on the following morning, Friday? Didn't you receive two lieutenants and a private in your office? Didn't you announce to them that there was no possibility of a pay raise for the firemen this year because you had no funds? In so many words didn't you advise this committee, I call it a threat, that unless they suppressed the rumors against you within the fire department and throughout the city with the 'free thinking' citizens that you would have to publish 'the figures'? As a candidate for mayor I ask YOU Mayor Lockwood to publish those figures you referred to. The tax-payers and rent payers of Newton have a right to know them. If you've got some facts that the Newton public should know, let's have them. Further, didn't you make inference that there was one man in Newton who was trying to make the fire department a political football?

Mr. Mayor, only a few weeks ago I proved to the satisfaction of Newton citizens that your $235,000 figure for the operation of the humanitarian 48 hour work-week plan for Newton firemen was a falsity. You have not denied it.

There is no one in Newton who has played at football, either soccer, rugby or the real American kind, with the efficient Newton fire department more than YOU have. One good look in the mirror will convince you of that. And to prove it I offer these facts. Previous to the adoption of the 48 hour plan didn't you hold many meetings at city hall with representatives of the firemen attempting to make a compromise settlement with them such as a $50 A YEAR increase in pay? At these meetings weren't questions asked of you for which you had NO answer? Mr. Mayor it is high time we stopped the "hidden ball" act in the football "kick-offs" you have given all city workers."

Household Hints

Please tell me what to do with my waffle iron. It's always sticking! The grids have turned black. How can I clean them? It's almost new and I'm very disgusted.

Mrs. E. T.
Sounds as though the iron wasn't properly seasoned. Soak a cloth in ammonia, leave it on the grids overnight, then scrub with steel wool. When the iron is clean, rub unsalted fat on the grids, turn the baker on at low heat, close and leave it for about eight minutes. Wipe off excess fat with paper towel.

The Grim Alternative

This part of the country has been twice mentioned prominently in the news this past week—in the one instance as six Massachusetts counties, including Norfolk, were declared drought disaster areas by the Secretary of Agriculture; and in the other as New England, where unemployment is fast becoming a major problem, was named the nation's first area that will benefit from the federal aid program.

Such instances should bring us to reflect that (to employ a physical analogy) we are all today part of an integral organism in which poor functioning of any part can affect not only the well-being of the various members but the entire body as well.

Thus we are brought to the realistic viewpoint that situations even in remote places can have an effect on us here at home, by the inexorable law of cause and effect.

We Americans unconsciously find this a hard doctrine to swallow for we naturally come by a strong feeling of self-sufficiency, since no other people have been so blessed with such an abundance of natural resources, of mine, forest and farm.

The Great Depression of 1929 when millions were on public relief, did bring home even to the most uninitiated, however, the basic lesson that fluctuations in world trade can affect the dinner paid of the worker across the water.

As James Morgan recently said in the Boston Globe, "At the cost of war, the Marshall Plan, dollar crises and depressions we are being taught in the dear school of experience that prosperity, getting a living, is indivisible. . . . We have had evidence enough that, regardless of nations and race, the human family truly are members one of another."

Say the men of the Rockefeller Foundation, "The world of disease and misery is not divided; it is a common world. In terms of human suffering the world is truly and tragically one world."

"What is true of medicine and public health is true also in the fields of science and humanism. There are no French or English enzymes, no German or American electrons. Tolstoy and Shakespeare and Bacon and Tschakowsky belong to the world, just as the spiritual ideals of Gandhi have now become the heritage of mankind."

These are some of the common interests whose waves are breaking over the old flag-marked boundaries and are bringing the world a conception of civilization and of the intellectual life of man as a cooperative achievement."

The sustaining of peace and prosperity is seen to be quite as difficult as the winning of a war, and this too requires of us much conscious effort, sacrifice, discipline and cooperation.

All in all, then, there can be little doubt that in this year 1949 we are face to face with a challenge that is one of the most momentous that our society has ever experienced.

For each succeeding day and each succeeding event—local or international—shows us grimly that our one chance of upholding a sane world is to seek out the common denominators, the unity of aims, the recognitions of kinship, the intuitions of our common destiny.

Regardless of the formidable obstacles, therefore, we must push on and on toward the ultimate goal of world brotherhood, under the banner of the spiritual brotherhood of man.

There must be a bloodless crusade for peace, with leaders and prophets arising to lead us forward toward universal peace and security.

There can be but one alternative: a headlong rush down the road to cosmic ruin.

Wise parents make plans for a new baby well in advance of his arrival. If everything is in readiness and all possible preparation is made, both mother and father are assured and confident that all will go well.

worthy. The Nave ceiling with graceful wood trusses springing from the decorated stone corbels gives a feeling of airy openness to the interior. Above the deep arches of the Nave, a richly carved cornice of wood ties in with the cornice of the Sanctuary and the Choir Gallery. In a band of ornament on either side of the Sanctuary cornice the motto of the Jesuit Order, AD MAJOREM DEI GLORIAM (To the Greater Glory of God) is carved and accented with gold leaf. The ceiling is paneled with deep coffers and ornamental symbols. The walls to a height of about ten feet are paneled and at the sides clergy seats, similar to choir stalls, have been erected in place of Prie Dieu placed about the Sanctuary.

The Narthex Screen separating the Narthex (or vestibule) from the Nave is carved white oak with symbolic ornament as is the ceiling of the vestibule. Heavy oak beams with chamfered sides are built up in the manner of Early Gothic woodwork. On the Nave side small figures of St. Cecilia and King David are carved on the supporting posts of the Choir Gallery. These figures symbolize religious music. The Pipe Organ, one of the finest instruments of its kind was made and erected by the Casavant Brothers of St. Hyacinthe, Quebec, Canada.

The Stations of the Cross, the work of Angelo Cascieri, are carved basswood in low relief with a walnut background. The Stations are set in antique gold frames. They add a rich color to the interior. The exterior and interior sculptured work was also executed by this talented sculptor.

The marbles used in the church are both domestic and foreign. The domestic marble used for steps and bases throughout the body of the church are of Tennessee Red Cedar.

The main altar and the steps leading up to the altar in the Sanctuary are of Botticino, a warm ivory toned Italian marble. The side altars are of Botticino with panels of Black and Gold and Sanguine Verona. The decorative symbols carved in the face of the altars are incised and covered with gold leaf. The heavily moulded step at the communion rail is of Belgian Black marble set into the vestibule walls. The Baptismal Font is of Alabama Stone, richly carved.

In addition to the upper church which seats one thousand, there is a lower church which seats five hundred people.

The lower church is so designed that it can be used as a small auditorium for community activities, lectures, moving pictures, etc. It has a small stage with recessed Altar, a Sacristy, and three confessionals. It is arranged so that the Altar and the Confessionals can be concealed with drapes when not used as a chapel. In connection with the chapel is a Social Hall seating about two hundred people, for the use of Catholic activities. The walls of this room are sheathed to the ceiling with Brazilian Pine. A Modern kitchen has been installed with all equipment of stainless steel. The kitchen will be used for serving Communion breakfasts and any social affairs in connection with the Church. The basement rooms are mechanically ventilated and the heating is by concealed convector units.

Masses have been said for the last time at the Library Auditorium and the Chapel at Boston College for the parishioners of Saint Ignatius Church. All of the Masses on the first day of the opening will be said at the new Church at Lake St. and Commonwealth Ave. The time of the Masses will be 5:30, 6:00, 7:00, 8:00, 9:00, 10:00 and the Pontifical Mass at 11:00 o'clock.

The lighting fixtures, exterior and interior, hardware and wrought iron work, bronze tabernacle doors, altar candlesticks and crosses were all designed especially for this church by the Architect.

It is expected that thousands of visitors will visit the church on the opening day as it is considered one of the most beautiful churches ever built in the Archdiocese of Boston, under the direction of His Excellency, Most Reverend Richard J. Cushing, D.D., Archbishop of Boston.

The church is very easily reached on the Boston College line of the Metropolitan Transit Authority and is only a few steps from the Lake Street Terminal.

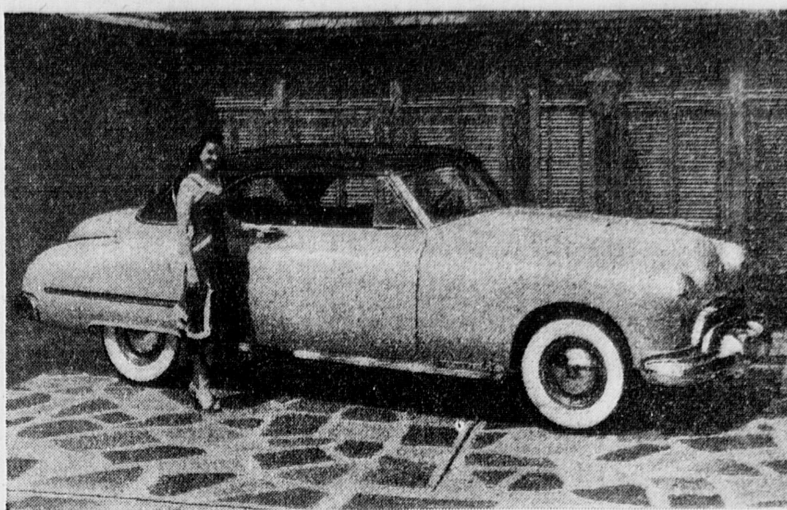

Beginning, Monday, August 1, the daily Masses will be celebrated at 7:00, 7:30 and 8:15.

The Metropolitan Transit Authority has arranged for bus transportation from Englewood Avenue and Beacon Street for the parishioners for the Sunday Masses.

News from the State House

By HELEN L. RING

The 1949 session of the General Court of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts is now nearing its end. It is believed that by August 12 the members will wind up its business and go home. There is much to be done in that space of time. The following problems must be ironed out before they leave such as:

The Cash Sickness Benefit Fund which was rejected by the House, the governor wants an exhaustive study on that legislation, the question of taxation must come up before the Senate, veterans' preference, reducing the age of 65 to 60 years for old age retirement, anti-injunction bill, special study to survey, overhaul, and streamline the state government, called the "Dever Commission" and all major problems including the Boston Airport bill which the Senate approved for the sum of $18,000,000 and the House rejected the bill because $6,000,000 was originally appropriated was enough for airport expansion.

A message from Governor Dever was read in the House of Representatives on Wednesday. The temperature in the House Chamber read 95 degrees. It was a hot and tiresome group of elected officials that listened. Governor Dever asked in his message to the legislature that a 12-man commission costing $100,000 be created to study, re-examine and overhaul the governmental organization; to streamline and improve; to abolish inefficient administration; to reduce, simplify and make uniform rules, regulations and procedures; to eliminate the unnecessary; to consolidate the overlapping; to eradicate the wasteful and thereby to reduce the costs of government and the burdens of taxation. This can be obtained only by an overall study and investigation of the whole structure of the state government. Governor Dever said that as a result of considerable study of our state government I have come to the conclusion that in three major respects the criticisms levelled are true and the situation admits of amendment, correction and improvement. He stated specific instances, one for example was milk regulation board, the milk control and inspection of milk which is in different departments, also the governor is called upon to approve appointments to colleges or universities engaged in veterinary medicine. Such a power should be invested in the department of education and not in the governor. The 12 members should be selected as follows: two by the president of the Senate from membership of that body. Two should be selected by the Speaker of the House. The Governor should be authorized to place on the commission two persons employed in the executive branch of the government. The remainder should be recruited from the general public. The appointees should equally represent the two major political parties. No such investigation of the State government, as a whole, has ever been made for 30 years.

Over 250 people jammed the hearing room in the State House and many more filled the corridors outside to oppose taxes on banks, billboards, liquor and insurance. Rep. Robert Murphy, Democratic floor leader of the House, was the only speaker for the bill before the Senate Ways and Means Committee. Many attending the public hearing were bankers, and attorneys for banks. Rep. Murphy warned that if the $20,000,000 in additional revenue was not raised the "dreaded" state tax would have to be revived and the burden would be passed onto local real estate taxes. There was much laughter and humor when a question was asked of a legislator from Melrose who voiced his strong objections to taxation from a committee member as the reason why the legislator voted for the budget and also an increase of $360 salary increase for state employees. The legislator replied that "I accepted the budget because I didn't know any better." "I wish I had voted against it." Those who appeared in opposition were T. G. Sullivan, Warren Oliver and Rutherford E. Smith all of Newton. Mr. Harry R. Andrews, president of Massachusetts Co-operative Banks League of Massachusetts, stated that "it is entering wedge of taxation which takes from banks money being held for reserves. Co-operative banks are all mutual institutions thereby taking money away from shareholders through this form of taxation. In the end it will penalize encouragement of thrift." Senator Nolan, chairman of the Senate Ways and Means, stated today that the tax bill will probably be reported to the Senate for action on Monday.

A Joint meeting of the House and Senate will be held on Tuesday in the House Chamber to act on a proposed constitutional amendment to permit the levying of a graduated state income tax.

Household Hints

Last fall we varnished our woodwork. A few weeks later, a film appeared on it. We used var but the film has not disappeared. Please advise how to get it glossy.

Mrs. M. Z.

Fog that appears after waxing is due to excess wax. If it appears before, it might be due to the condition of the varnish you used. Or if you used a paint and varnish remover, and didn't wash the wood afterwards with alcohol or turpentine that could be the trouble. When varnish stands around a long time, it may separate. Better use the alcohol or turpentine wash now, and apply a new coat of good varnish.

"Love" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, July 31. Golden Text: "Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you" (II Corinthians 13:11).

Sermon: Passages from the Bible (King James Version) include:

"And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him" (I John 4:16). Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include:

"The Christian Science God is universal, eternal, divine Love, which changeth not and causeth no evil, disease, nor death. . . . Divine Love is infinite. Therefore all that really exists is in and of God, and manifests His love" (pp. 140, 340).

Recent Deaths

Rosalida deMontigny

Funeral services for Mrs. Rosalida deMontigny, wife of the late Henry deMontigny, were held this morning from her home, 96 East Side Parkway, Newton. A solemn requiem mass was celebrated in St. Jean L'Evangeliste Church at 9 o'clock. Burial was in St. Francis Xavier Cemetery.

Mrs. deMontigny died at her home Monday, July 25, following a brief illness. She was in her 83rd year and was a native of St. John, Irberville, Quebec, Canada, the daughter of Joseph and Mary Bell.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Alice Parent and a brother, Leon Bell of Montreal, Canada.

Clarence H. Moulton

Milton friends will be sorry to learn of the death last Wednesday in Chicago of Clarence Hartley Moulton, of 3500 14th street, N. W., Washington, D. C. Mr. Moulton was the husband of the late Evelyn Farrington Moulton, formerly of Milton. Mrs. Moulton died last year.

Mr. Moulton died of a heart attack while participating in a Shriner's parade. He was a member of the Wollaston Masonic Lodge, and Almas Temple Mystic Shrine, and was quartermaster of the Almas Temple band. He was a member of the National Society of Professional Engineers.

Mr. Moulton was born in Philadelphia, Pa., 65 years ago and lived in Randolph and later in Wollaston. He moved to Washington in 1933, and was a civilian drafting engineer in the Navy Department Bureau of Ships. While living in Wollaston he was employed at the Victory plant at Squantum during World War I and was later employed by S. H. Couch Company of North Quincy and the Holtzer-Cabot Company.

Funeral services were held Saturday in Washington and burial was in Fort Lincoln Cemetery. Mr. Moulton is survived by a son Robert E. Moulton of Washington, and a grandson James R. Moulton. He also leaves a sister Mrs. Elsie C. Weston and a niece Mrs. Ruth M. Wells, both of Wollaston and a nephew Richard Watson of North Quincy.

Grace Lavoie

Funeral services for Mrs. Grace Lavoie, wife of the late Joseph M. Lavoie, of 73 Faxon Street, Newton, were held Monday morning from the home of her daughter, Miss Eva Lavoie, 3 Fair Oaks Avenue, Newtonville. A requiem mass was celebrated in St. Jean L'Evangeliste Church by Rev. Sylvio V. Barrette. Burial was in St. Patrick's Cemetery, Natick, with prayers by Fr. Barrette.

Mrs. Lavoie died on Thursday, July 21, following a brief illness. She was in her 80th year and was born in Quebec, Canada.

She leaves two sons, Ernest Lavoie of California and Joseph Lavoie of Natick; five daughters, Mrs. Joseph Morrell and Mrs. Alfred Vachon of Newton, Mrs. Charles Greenwood of Waltham, Mrs. Nathaniel Lyford of Watertown and Miss Eva Lavoie of Newtonville, and 23 grandchildren.

Eleanor Murphy

Funeral services for Mrs. Eleanor Murphy, wife of the late John W. Murphy, former chairman of the Newton Board of Assessors, were held Saturday morning from her home, 73 Jassett Street, Newton. A solemn requiem mass was celebrated in the Church of Our Lady at 9 o'clock by Rev. John A. Sears, assisted by Rev. Francis E. Golden of Elmbank Seminary, Wellesley, as deacon and Rev. Arthur I. Norton, sub-deacon. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham, with prayers by Fr. Norton and Fr. Mahoney.

Seated in the sanctuary were Rev. Richard L. McHale of St. Luke's Church, Belmont, and Rev. Joseph P. Mahoney of St. Joseph's Church, Medford.

Also present was a delegation of Sisters of Charity from St. Joseph's Church, Medford. Others present included members of the Newton city government, representatives from the Liberty Mutual Insurance Company and the Lumbermen's Mutual Insurance Company of Boston; the Boston Post Office Department and the Newton Centre Wine Company; also former Mayor Edwin O. Childs, former Aldermen William A. Sproat, William Doherty and Edward H. Powers; Aldermen Edward A. Vahey and Clerk of the Court, James P. Gallagher.

Mrs. Murphy died suddenly on Wednesday, July 20, while on a vacation at Pocasset, Mass. She was in her 73rd year and was born in County Cork, Ireland, the daughter of Edmund and Mary (Foley) Murphy. She had resided in Newton for more than 50 years, and had been active in church and civic affairs.

She leaves a daughter, Miss Mary Murphy of Newton; three

Backyard Gardener

By Alfred W. Boicourt, Department of Floriculture University of Massachusetts

Thank goodness I don't own a hedge! Not that I don't approve of clipped hedges, but I just wouldn't have the time to devote to its proper trimming. My house sets up from the street, thus, I have no great need for privacy planting and my neighbors' surroundings look better than my own.

Why do hedges become thin, especially at the bottom? Improper trimming is the main cause of scraggly hedges. Most hedges should be clipped so that they are wider at the base than at the top. Naturally, most of the water and nutrients go to the top branches. Under poor growing conditions, the lower shoots may receive no water or nutrients or sunshine which will eventually result in their death. We hasten thinning at the bottom of a hedge by trimming it flat on top. A flat top hedge allows little light for the lower branches. Without light these lower branches are unable to manufacture food.

You may prefer a rounded hedge or one more or less triangular with only a very narrow flat surface at the top. The one with the rounded top tends to shed snow in winter.

Hedge Hints

1. Trim hedge so base is wider than the top.

2. A hedge running north to south allows more light to both sides as compared to one running east to west. An east to west hedge receives no sun on the north side.

3. An old deciduous hedge may be rejuvenated by cutting it to within 2 to 3 inches of the ground early in the spring.

4. A young deciduous hedge such as Privet should be pruned severely when planted. Then the second season trim it frequently to promote denseness. Mature hedges may be trimmed only once a year—right now. Vigorous hedges such as California Privet may need several trimmings. Also, several early season trimmings will increase denseness.

Mary A. Vereker

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary A. (Delaney) Vereker, wife of John Vereker of 57 Eddy Street, West Newton, were held from her home on Saturday morning. A solemn requiem mass was celebrated in St. Bernard's Church by Rev. John J. Crane, S.T.L., assisted by Rev. Francis P. Sullivan as deacon and Rev. Robert E. Brennan, sub-deacon. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham, with prayers by Fr. Brennan.

Mrs. Vereker died on Thursday, July 21, she was in her 33rd year and was born in Galway, Ireland, the daughter of Thomas and Teresa (McGann) Delaney. She came to reside in Waltham when a child, attended St. Joseph's Parochial School and was graduated from St. Mary's High School in Waltham.

She is survived by her husband and her mother, Mrs. Teresa Delaney of Waltham; a two-year-old son, Thomas D. Delaney, and an infant daughter; also by three brothers, William J. James T. and Raphael Delaney, all of Waltham.

State Goes Over Quota in Savings Bond Campaign

Mr. James V. Toner, State Chairman of the Savings Bonds Committee, has just announced that during the Opportunity Loan Drive a total of $34,722,000 in Series E Savings Bonds was sold in Massachusetts. The quota for the Commonwealth was $31,540,000.

These sales were made notwithstanding the prevailing unemployment situation in New England. Mr. Toner stated that this greatly exceeded the total sales for the corresponding period last year during the Security Loan Drive.

"Credit should go in a large measure," said Mr. Toner, "to the banks, post offices and industrial plants where the actual sales were consummated and to the city and town chairmen and committees that organized to conduct this great peacetime campaign."

The visit of the Covered Wagon to the cities of the Commonwealth, made possible through the contribution of the International Harvester Company, awakened interest and reports of increased sales followed its visit to each locality. The efforts of national organizations, working in unison for the first time in any such campaign were also greatly felt.

Mr. Toner expressed his thanks to Governor Dever, the newspapers, radio stations, theatres, industry and labor for their effective assistance during the drive.

Unemployment Claims Increase In Number

"An increase in the number of claims for unemployment benefits amounting to 1506 were recorded for the week ending July 16th by the Division of Employment Security," Antonio England, Director, reported today.

"Although an increase in claims were noted over the previous week the total filed last week of 196,765 was 1574 less than the number filed two weeks ago when the total amounted to 198,339," Mr. England pointed out. "All of the increase last week was in claims for unemployment compensation filed under the state law, the rise amounting to 2239, while a decrease was recorded in claims for readjustment allowances filed by unemployed veterans under the G. I. Bill."

"Much of the increase this past week can be attributed to the fact that a large number of plants and mills have been shutting down for vacation periods during the first part of July and some of the workers have been filing claims for unemployment benefits," England added. "There appears to be indications that as soon as the vacation season is ended a definite drop will appear in the number of claims for benefits filed with the Division of Employment Security."

During the week ending July 16 the Division paid out $2,946,377 in unemployment compensation.

Barnard-Gunsallus

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford T. Gunsallus of 125 Vernon street, Newton announce the marriage of their daughter, Edith Virginia, to Mr. James E. Barnard, son of Reverend and Mrs. Harold H. Barnard of Carthage, New York, on Saturday, July the ninth, at 2 p.m. in the Asbury Methodist Church, Watertown, New York. Dr. George Harlan McClung performed the ceremony, assisted by Reverend Harold H. Barnard, father of the bridegroom. A reception for 160 was held in the church parlor following the ceremony.

The couple left for a wedding trip through the New England states and will reside in Belleville, New York after September 1st.

Miss Shirley M. Barnard, sister of the groom, was the bride's honor attendant. The bridesmaids were Miss Kathryn Mather of Pulaski, New York and Miss Dorothy Clinch of Watertown, New York.

G. Wesley Barnard was best man for his brother and the ushers were David Gunsallus, brother of the bride, of Buffalo, New York and Gilbert Parker of Haverstraw, New York.

The bride's gown was of white satin with a train and a bertha of nylon lace, the skirt being draped to show a flounce of nylon lace. She carried a white satin Testament with streamers of roses.

The bride attended the University of Rochester School of Nursing and is a member of the Madame Brett Chapter, Children of the American Revolution and is past president of the Watertown, New York Junior Musicals. Mr. Barnard is a graduate of Oswego State Teachers College and is on the faculty of the Belleville Central School.

Rev. Harold H. Barnard, father of the bridegroom, was Field Director of the American Red Cross in the Boston area, during the war.

Mr. Gunsallus is District Engineer of the Boston and Albany Railroad. They were former residents of Watertown, New York.

Recent Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Gannon of Waltham have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Irene Joan Gannon, to Mr. Richard Connolly of Boston, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Connolly of Auburndale.

Both Miss Gannon and Mr. Connolly are graduates of St. Mary's High School, Waltham. Miss Gannon attended Emmanuel College. Mr. Connolly, a veteran of the U. S. Army, attended the School of Practical Arts in Boston.

An October wedding is planned.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Sayford Bacon of 42 Hyde avenue, Newton announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Bessie Rilla Bacon, to Mr. Douglas Duncan Milne, Jr. at a garden party, Saturday afternoon, July 23, at "Pierlane", their summer residence at East-ern Point, Gloucester.

Miss Bacon, who was graduated from Vassar College and prepared at the House in the Pines, made her debut in Boston in the 1941-1942 season and also in Chattanooga, Tennessee, her mother's native state, where she was presented at the Cotton Ball. She is now working at the Massachusetts Civic League.

She is the granddaughter of the late Judge and Mrs. William Francis Bacon of Newton and Mrs. Elissa Turner Ingram, Sr., and the late Mr. Ingram of Rockwood, Tennessee. She is a descendant of Michael Bacon who settled in 1640 on land which later became part of Newton, and of the Woodward family which settled in what is now Waban in 1681. On her maternal side she is descended from the Randolph and other early families of Virginia and the Carolinas.

Mr. Milne is a graduate of Phillips Academy, Andover, and of Amherst College, Class of 1945, and member of Psi Upsilon fraternity. During the war he was a Lieutenant, Junior Grade, in the U. S. Navy and served in the Pacific Area. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Duncan Milne of Wellesley Farms, and the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Duncan Milne of Lexington and the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kerr Hastings of Aurora, Illinois.

The wedding will take place in the fall.

benefits under the state law and another $500,925 to veterans under the G. I. Bill. The balance in the State Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund as of July 8 was $139,949,411.

The Newton Angler

Where to Fish by Boat

During the next few months anglers will again face the problem of finding ponds and lakes where they can rent a boat. Shore fishing has been none too good during the recent low water period and the demand for boats so far this season has been far greater than in previous years on our inland waters.

This was also true along the coast earlier in the season for early salt water fishing. The situation has eased up considerably since then, as most of the boys have changed to surf fishing for stripers, leaving plenty of boats available for salt water fishing at most liveries.

With the vacation season now in full swing, you will find it almost impossible to get a boat unless you reserve it in advance of the day you wish to fish. Many of our best ponds and lakes in this state do not have boat liveries, and if possible it is best to bring along your own boat or canoe. Many anglers I know prefer to fish in such water because they have found that most ponds and lakes that do have liveries are usually heavily fished.

Many of our local people will spend their vacations on Cape Cod, and a good deal of them are planning to do some fresh water fishing there. If you are one of these, and do not have a boat, you should know that only ten of sixteen good fishing ponds in Plymouth and Barnstable Counties have boat liveries. These are located at: Cliff Pond in Brewster, Great Pond in Eastham, Long Pond and Pleasant Lake in Harwich, Bull Pond and Higgins Pond in Wellfleet, Muddy Pond and Sampsons Pond in Carver, East Wareham Mill Pond in Wareham and Billington Sea in Plymouth.

Those fishing in the western part of the state will find most of the ponds in the Berkshire County area have boat liveries. You can get boats at the following places which are all considered good fishing spots: Center Pond and Greenwater Pond in Becket, Hoosac Reservoir in Cheshire, Prospect Lake in Egremont, North Pond in Florida, Goose Pond and Laurel Lake in Lee, Lake Buell and Lake Garfield in Monterey, also on the Lake Buell on the New Marlboro, East Otis Reservoir in Otis, Spectacle Pond in Danversfield and Goose Pond in Tyringham. Every one of these are good bass and pickerel spots.

In Franklin County there is only one pond where boats are available, and that is at Ashfield Pond in the town of Ashfield. This is a swell place for bass.

In Hampden County, where you will find both good bass and pickerel fishing, you can rent boats at the following ponds: Little Alum and Sherman Ponds in Burnfield, Holland Pond and Reservoir in Holland, Forest Lake in Palmer, Lake George in Wales, Upper and Lower Reservoir in Gospen, Hatfield Pond in Hatfield and Ox Box in Northampton.

For those closer to home there are a few good bass and pickerel ponds in the Bristol County where boats are available. You will find them at Noguchoke Lake in Dartmouth, Long Pond in Freetown, Milford Pond and Swansea Reservoir in the town of Swansea, and Norton Reservoir and Lake Winnecunnet in Norton.

In Norfolk County, boats are available on the Charles River at West Roxbury, Dedham and Dover. Also at Sunset Lake in Braintree, Mirimichi Pond in Foxboro, Massapoag Pond in Sharon and Whitman Pond in Weymouth. In addition to these liveries you will probably find privately owned boats that are available at times.

New England Seasons
A great many of our Parkway families will spend their vacations in Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont or right in our own state. During the months of July and August both anglers and gunners can enjoy various types of fishing and hunting besides all types of salt water fishing.

If you are in Maine you can enjoy legally all types of angling in brooks and streams until August 15th, but you can fish any lake, pond or river above tide-water during the entire two months for all kinds of fish. If you want to do some shooting, you can legally shoot fox, bear or wildcat.

If you will be in New Hampshire you can take all types of fish during these two months. The season ends on August 31 on trout, salmon and whitefish. For the hunters, they can legally take bear, fox and lynx.

In our own state you can take all types of fish during July. The season closes on trout and salmon on July 31. The gunner can shoot the following during these two months: red squirrel, porcupine, fox, skunk, woodchuck and wild cat.

Local Fishing Improved
Recent showers have brought up the water to a higher level in some of the local ponds during the past week and has helped for better fishing at some of our ponds. This is particularly true in the Cape Area where a heavier rainfall was experienced than we had in this section.

Fishing along the Charles beyond the dam at Charles River Village greatly improved during the past week. Though very few pickerel have been taken in that section, bass seem far more plentiful than was reported earlier in the season. With higher water the bass have started to hit on the surface.

One Medfield angler, using a new type mechanical frog with leg action which has just been marketed in recent weeks, has been getting a number of medium size bass in the Millis-Medfield area. He has also been fairly successful with this plug at Farm Pond in Framingham on both bass and pickerel. He has also landed a number of large yellow perch with this plug.

A few Rosindale anglers continue to have fair results on bass and large yellow perch at Muddy Pond. The bass taken during the past week all topped two pounds, and they were all taken with a small spinner with large night crawlers.

We again want to warn you: if fishing those shores, be very careful of mud holes; they are real dangerous at some points as a lot of anglers have learned.

A few good smallmouth were taken last weekend at Massapoag but they are few and far between. If you do land one of these you will have enjoyed some action; they have been full of fight.

Very little action at New Pond in Norwood during the past week on smallmouth, but the shore fishermen have done well on small white perch. These white perch were most active on garden worms and did not seem to hit hard on night crawlers.

A number of Dedham youngsters have been getting calico bass, white and yellow perch and small pickerel at Wigwam Pond in Dedham during the past week. They are all small fish, and no doubt some of last fall's stocking sponsored by the Dedham Fish and Hunt Association.

Not much activity at Winnecunnet in Norton, but a number of Parkway Anglers fishing the Reservoir in the same town last Saturday took a good catch of bass and calico. Two anglers fishing at Houghton's Pond in Holliston took their limit of pickerel last Sunday morning in less than three hours. They were fishing deep with chub.

For the first time this season both pickerel and bass have been real active on both the Concord and Sudbury Rivers over the past week. Best results were in deep water on both chub and shiners.

New York Law
A new law just passed by the New York State Legislature prohibits the sale of hunting licenses to minors under 17 years of age, and only after those above that age have been schooled in the handling of firearms by a state game protector. Under this new law only game protectors can issue licenses to such minors.

Aimed at reducing the hunting accident toll, it has the added advantages of getting the youth acquainted with its local conservation officer, teaching respect for the law, and instilling an understanding of sportsman-

Gath-

"Certain it is," said Mr. Gath, "if the heavy industrialized city of Lawrence, with their present unemployment problem of 22,000 people, can afford to operate FOUR such swimming pools together with FIVE wading pools for little tots, all properly supervised by the municipality at an approximate cost of $15,000 a year for complete personnel including life guards, instructors, first aid attendants and watchmen, the 'grand and glorious' Garden City should be able to afford ONE installation.

"It definitely is a sad situation and definitely a reflection on the present city administration that in the two years since I first sponsored the Albemarle swimming pool idea that nothing has been done. About every week this summer we have had announcements made from city ship. Each licensed minor will be furnished with a 'New Hunter's Manual' which outlines firearm safety rules and hunting ethics.

It might be a good idea to have such a law in our own state for the safety of the public and the safety of the new gunner.

The New York State Manual which is given to all hunters, lists five major responsibilities of hunters which could well be reviewed by many experienced gunners as well as those just beginning. These are: To hunt without injury to yourself or another; to hunt without harm to the property of another; to hunt without harm to the future game crop; and to hunt without causing undue suffering to a single living thing.

Homing Pigeons
Sportsmen finding lost or strayed banded homing pigeons New York Times-Bulletin, P. O. Box 499 at Huntington, Bailey's unusual hobby is tracing the ownership of such birds.

Salt Water Fishing
Salt water fishing along our coast is very spotty, and it is difficult for anyone to advise where they are hitting. This is especially true on stripers and mackerel; they are real active at one spot on one day and gone tomorrow. Much of this depends on winds and weather conditions. Last week a few of us fished out from Ellenville for mackerel and landed a boat load in a few hours. The wind shifted that day on the low tide and there hasn't been a mackerel caught in the bay since that time.

Stripers are very spotty at this time and most catches are in the surf. The best spots during the past weekend were Race Point at Provincetown, Truro and Martha's Vineyard. Very little taken at any place on the South and North Shore. Bottom fishing also very slow and excursion fishing boats report the worst fishing of the season. Some of these fishing boats' top catches for the day are only running about four to five pounds on cod.

Most fish taken at present within a twelve to fourteen mile radius are small hake. One bright spot for those enjoying eel fishing is just off Stone Pier at Hingham where the boys have been getting plenty of big ones. These eels have just recently moved in in large quantities. They appeared there shortly after the recent dredging operations in that area.

At Martha's Vineyard
If you plan on being on Martha's Vineyard between now and the end of the trout season on July 31, there are a few good trout spots on the island that are still active according to a letter I received from a Rosindale reader who has been vacationing there. He advises that he has had some real good trout fishing at Upper Chilmark Pond and Jobs Neck Pond. He has fished Big Homer Pond but without much success. This pond can only be fished by fly casting. If on the island after the trout season, he says the best bet on pickerel is at Watcha Pond and Tashmoog Pond for bass.

Hold Annual Fishing Trip
The Dedham Fish and Hunt Association members held their annual salt water fishing trip last Saturday aboard Captain Pitt's boat out of Quincy. Many of the boys break away one day each year for a good day of bottom fishing. The party was led by president Bob Kennedy and Burt Griffin, head of the fishing committee.

The Five Arts of Beauty: Grace... A Beauty Must

By FRED ASTAIRE

Complete mastery of the other four arts of beauty will avail a woman nothing if she lacks the fifth—the art of bodily grace. I do not make that statement just because my subject is "How to Achieve Gracefulness," but because I am sure that the others who have joined me in writing these articles will agree that everything they have told you would be wasted on a clumsy, awkward woman.

It is my firm conviction that ballroom dancing is the greatest single contribution toward maintaining good posture, because in learning how to dance, one acquires at the same time poise, a sense of timing and rhythm, the important art of balance, and self-confidence. While tap and ballet dancing are not to be derided by any means, I believe that most young women will derive greatest benefit from ballroom dancing.

Dance to Stand

The correct dancing position, just by itself, can work wonders for both old and young because of the great improvement in posture that results from assuming it. The head is lifted, the shoulders are straight and on the same plane as the hips, the chest is raised, the diaphragm is lifted and flat, the weight of the body is distributed properly both vertically and horizontally. Stop and remember the last time you saw a model or an actress walk. Isn't that the way she held herself? And you'll find that the 900 instructors in the Fred Astaire Dance Studios have this grace and loveliness. In almost every case, their poise and charm stem from their dancing correctly, for few of them have had modeling training.

While everyone can learn to be graceful, I'm not so sure that everyone can learn to compose or write. But for those of you who were born with those talents, or have acquired them, the National Five Arts Award, which inspired this series, presents a unique opportunity. In addition to the cash prizes of $30,000, there are a total of up to $70,000 in fellowships for the best popular song, radio script, movie synopsis, short story and play submitted to contest headquarters, 715 Fifth Avenue, New York. And don't overlook the fact that arrangements will be made for professional production and publication of the winners.

Standing Properly

Before giving my ideas on how to stand, sit and walk gracefully, I'd like to say that a good beginning is to master the art of balancing to waltz music. The dancer is ready for these when she has progressed to the point where side steps have been substituted for marking time. On the heavy beat of the music, she goes forward on the left foot and holds, standing on one foot, for two counts; then back on the two counts; then back on the right foot and hold for two counts. This exercise is given in my studios before all others so that the dancer may learn the more involved steps with the proper sense of balance and timing. Once these two arts are learned, every other body movement is simple.

The proper beginning for graceful walking is correct posture. This is much the same as the proper dancing position. The spine should be straight, with the shoulders squared and parallel to the pelvis. One good way to learn this position is to stand against a wall in a four-point contact, with the back of the head, shoulders, derriere and heels all touching the wall.

You'll notice that your stomach is automatically pulled in and the chest lifted when this pose is struck. The head is raised, and the chin held in. But you must remember not to exaggerate this position, lest you look like a Cadet or Roxy usher on parade. The weight, of course, is evenly distributed on both feet.

Walking Correctly

Once the proper standing position has been mastered, you can start walking. A good idea is to walk toward a full length mirror to keep a check on yourself. Unless you want to goose-step like a Nazi, don't "Lead" with your foot; let your knee point the way with your thigh extended. You'll find that your calf will then swing into line quite gracefully. You'll be able to avoid waddling or bobbing from side to side if you keep your knees close together, almost touching in fact.

Toeing in or toeing out should both be avoided. The feet should point straight ahead although the slower your pace, the greater the tendency to have the toes point out. The next time you're on a beach, look back at your tracks. If you are walking properly, the footprints in the sand should be in a straight line.

Remember in walking to maintain comfortably the good posture you've already established in learning how to stand. I've noticed that a short girl will look taller if her strides are a bit longer than she has been using. Similarly, a tall girl can give the illusion of less height if her stride is a bit shorter.

There's one special type of walking, and that's going up stairs. The entire foot should be on the step, not just the toe and ball of the foot. The upward thrust should come from the lower part of the foot, with the heel raised. The thigh muscles, which are the strongest in the body, do the actual job of lifting you.

How to Sit

Sitting down gracefully is easily learned. Just walk to the chair the way you've already learned, and when the side of your leg touches the chair, turn slightly and sit down with as little movement as possible. Don't turn around and look wildly for the chair. When you've smoothed your skirts—which you do while sitting—let your back touch the back of the chair. Keep your spine straight, and your chest raised and out. Do not slump or sprawl. Not only is that ungraceful; it's also unhygienic.

After you sit down, cross your feet at the ankles, and place them slightly under the chair, toes pointed straight ahead. If you want to cross your legs, go right ahead. But cross them either below the knee or above it. Never put one knee directly on top of the other. In the first place, this flattens the calf and makes you look like a relay runner. Secondly, when the knees are on top of one another, that familiar patellar reflex, or knee jerk, might occur with embarrassing consequences if your foot should strike something. Remember to keep the foot beneath flat on the floor, with the toe pointed straight ahead; the toe of the upper foot should be pointed forward.

Don't Fidget

Do not clasp hands tightly, or interlace the fingers. Place one hand lightly in the other, or on the arm of the chair. Avoid drumming, too-busy fingers, toying with your necklace, or chewing your nails, as I've seen even some adults do.

When you get up, rise mainly with the help of your knees and those powerful thigh muscles. Keep your back straight while doing this and avoid pulling yourself up with your arms. That is for monkeys.

Win the rhythm and balance I've discussed, and learn to walk and sit gracefully, and you will help round out the five Arts of Beauty.

"Your Crowning Glory," by Mark of Fifth Avenue, the third in the series of the Five Arts of Beauty, will appear in an early issue of the Chronicle.

Toothpick It On

To add unusual flavor to roasts, fasten onion sections, olives, or garlic cloves on toothpicks, then insert the pick into the meat so that the food rests against it. As it cooks, the juices drip down into the meat and baste it.

'Floor Plan' for a Gracious Entrance

FIRST IMPRESSIONS are lasting and this distinctive hallway will be remembered for the gracious welcome it extends. The simple elegance of the entrance hall, with its Chinese theme, is carried through to the formal 18th century living room beyond. A floor of oak, which harmonizes with any setting, blends together the color and styling of the two rooms. In addition to serving as a transitional medium, the oak floor adds its own beauty of line and graining. The selection of flooring materials is an important part of successful home decoration. A helpful booklet on the subject, "Oak Floors for Your Home," may be had free by writing the Oak Flooring Information Service, 221 North LaSalle St., Chicago 1, Ill.

Home Nursing Is Valuable

Red Cross offers a service of utmost importance to men and women of Roslindale and West Roxbury.

The Home Nursing Service of the Boston Metropolitan Chapter of Red Cross stands ready at all times to teach men and women, free of charge, how to meet personal and family health problems within their own homes.

A large percentage of illnesses throughout the country are cared for in the home by the mother or some other member of the family. And, though caring for the sick is usually a woman's responsibility there are many times when the man of the house must arise to the occasion. Therefore, it is wise for anyone to have some understanding of the principles of caring for the sick and an opportunity to develop skill in simple home nursing procedures.

A Care of the Sick course is scheduled for three weeks, meeting twice a week for two hours and is limited to 10 people. Graduate nurses with special teacher training conduct these classes in which you learn how to observe signs of illness and how to report them accurately to the doctor; how to carry out intelligently the doctor's orders and how to keep a patient clean and comfortable. Instruction is given on protecting the family from contracting communicable diseases.

Sen. Cutler Favors Harris Resolve

A move to do for Massachusetts what the Hoover Commission has done for the federal government was heartily endorsed this week by Senator Leslie B. Cutler.

Pointing out that a Resolve was filed on May 9 by Hon. Warren G. Harris, former Republican member of the Governor's Council from Milford, calling for an unpaid, bi-partisan Recess Commission to study effective means of saving money and increasing efficiency by consolidating overlapping services and functions, Mr. Cutler stressed that this was but carrying out the mandate of the people as approved and ratified when the 66th Amendment to the State Constitution was recommended by the last Constitutional Convention held in 1917-18.

"With Governor Dever's bill to impose new taxes now holding up prorogation, it is interesting to note that after two and a half months the Democratic-controlled Rules Committee has taken no action on this Resolve," says Senator Cutler.

"I have been greatly interested in this Resolve and have talked at length with Mr. Harris about it.

"Despite the 66th Amendment which limited departments to twenty, there are now 24 separate additional Commissions, boards or authorities placed directly under the control of the Governor and the Council. Besides all these there are 20 more independent commissions and boards as well.

"There definitely is a critical need for a review of the present cumbersome state department setup, and I shall personally continue to make every effort to see that some definite constructive action is taken to effect this much-needed reform before the end of the current session," the local Senator declared.

A Correction

Editor, Newton Graphic:

In the July 21 issue of the Newton Graphic appeared a quotation of my talk to Newton Rotary on July 18. One statement which is in error and merits clarification is that Newton-Wellesley Hospital spent $100,000 on its Out Patient Department during 1948. The total amount of charitable allowances to all patients cared for in the hospital and in its Out Patient Department was slightly over $100,000. The Out Patient Department itself was only a small part of this: Its costs of operation were:

Expense	$9,994
Income	3,925

Loss	$6,069

Will you please be so kind as to correct in your next issue any false impression which might have resulted. Thank you very much.

T. Stewart Hamilton, M.D.,
Director.

Brockton Fair to Open September 10

The Brockton Fair, one of the nation's oldest annual agricultural events will be held from Saturday, September 10 through Saturday, September 17, it was announced by Dr. George A. Buckley, president of the Brockton Agricultural Society, sponsors of the Fair.

This year's Fair will mark the 76th anniversary of an event that has presented some of the most outstanding agricultural displays in New England's history. A new grandstand, constructed of steel and concrete and housing pari-mutual windows, refreshment stands and a large cafeteria will be dedicated on Fair Sunday, September 11.

In making his announcement of the 1949 Fair opening, Dr. Buckley said that this year's Fair will feature special attractions and exhibits for children. "We want to give the modern child a taste of the fun that we had at the old 'country fair,'" Dr. Buckley said. "We are dedicating a special area of the Fairgrounds to children's activities and we hope to have both educational and amusement exhibits that will appeal particularly to children. We will call this area 'The Children's World'."

A program for the Grandstand Show, long an outstanding Fair feature, is now being formulated. Additional prize money for 4-H Club and other agricultural presentations has been appropriated and the interiors of the Industrial Arts Building and Food Building are being redecorated. The Massachusetts Department of Agriculture is preparing an extensive exhibit in the State Building.

The Brockton Fair marks the beginning of the fall season for the people of Southeastern New England, who have attended the event for generations.
